

MOODS OF PROVENCE

classic planks with rounded bevels

The afternoon sun sinks over the violet sea of fragrant lavender plants, which stretch their graceful curves in lines straight as a die, almost endlessly to the horizon...

The gentle swaying curve of lavender plants in French Provence is the inspiration for our Moods of Provence collection. The expressive surfaces processed as planks are characterised by their special round bevel. Partly planed for still more haptic impressions, our Moods of Provence are a concert for the senses. A fabulous walking experience.

A FABULOUS WALKING EXPERIENCE

The rounded bevel: A treat for the eyes and feet

The planks in our Moods of Provence collection stand out with their specially finished rounded bevels. Gently rounded long sides create a soft and flowing transition from plank to plank – pleasing to the eye and foot.

When laid in the room, the floor appears especially balanced and harmonious. The rounded bevel makes each plank appear larger, thus bringing out the grown character of the wood to striking effect.

An invitation to walk barefoot.
