Dear Bankruptcy client:

Please review the information about bankruptcy found in this packet and fill out the enclosed questionnaire completely. Please also bring the following documents to your first meeting for your bankruptcy consultation:

1. Client Information Sheet;
2. Completed questionnaire
3. 2 years income tax returns with attachments
4. 6 months pay stubs or evidences of pay
5. Copy of identification and copy of social security card
6. House assessment if any and loan documents for any secured loan
7. 3 months bank statements
8. Registrations for all vehicles

We will not file your bankruptcy until our fees are paid in full. We can prepare a payment schedule for you to help you pay the fees. The Chapter 7 Packet is where we get the information to prepare your Petition, Schedules and Statements, so it should be as complete as possible. You can call me for help with any of these forms over the telephone if you need it. Finally, I have also enclosed a Credit Report Order Form. We do request that our clients obtain at least 1 credit report prior to filing their bankruptcy. There are three credit bureaus, so you may want to get a report from each bureau. If you only want to get one, we have found Experian to be the most helpful, as they provide the only report which lists your creditor's addresses.

The new laws require that you obtain a credit counseling certificate, which is good for only 180 days. I would suggest you not order the certificate until after you have met with me about your case. You may obtain this certificate over the internet.

We look forward to meeting with you. If you cannot bring all the documents requests, please be prepared to have them available as soon as possible.

Sincerely yours,

Valerie M Therrien
Attorney at law
