

Frequently Asked Questions

What type of car will I be learning in?

Ans. You will be learning in a new shape Renault Clio Diesel and it has a manual gearbox.

Can I get picked up from work or school?

Ans. Yes just talk to me about it and I should be able to arrange it.

How many lessons will I need before taking my practical test?

Ans. How long is a piece of string? No seriously... if you budget for between 30-40 lessons you will not be far away. On average pupils learning with me take their test around 25-30 lesson... but everyone is different, some will take more some will take less.

When I have finished my introductory course of 10 lessons can I take another set of 10 lessons at the same price?

Ans. No...However talk to David and see what he can offer you.

What if I need to cancel a lesson?

Ans. The general rule is that you must give 24hrs notice otherwise the lesson is chargeable at the normal rate. However, David will always try and help you.

I have just got my license back after a ban. What do I need to do now?

Ans. Get in touch with David ASAP and he will help to get you back on the road.

When should I start studying for the theory?

Ans. Now ... it is better to get it out of the way as soon as possible. David can help you with it. Take a look on the web site under Learning Materials and you will see theory. David will issue you with an access code to enter this topic, David's school of Motoring provides this free of charge.

Do you recommend that I get some practice at home?

Ans. Yes ... but get some lessons with a qualified instructor before starting to drive at home.

I am approaching my 17th birthday. When can I apply for my license?

Ans. You can apply for your license 2 months before you 17th birthday but it won't come into effect until the day of your 17th.

