WHAT DOES PACIFIC DEBT, INC. DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information, including personally identifiable information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:
- Social Security number and employment and income information
- Creditor account balances and payment history
- Credit history and other credit-related information

How?
All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; the reasons Pacific Debt chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

| Who is providing this notice? | Pacific Debt, Inc. |

What we do

| How does Pacific Debt, Inc. protect my personal information? | Pacific Debt, Inc. takes the security of personal information very seriously. To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use industry-standard security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include hardware and software computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. |
| How does Pacific Debt, Inc. collect my personal information? | We collect your personal information, for example, when you:
- Sign up for our products or services
- Contact us via telephone, email, or other means
- Provide us with your contact information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, and other companies. Note that Pacific Debt, Inc. does not direct its services or website to, or knowingly collect information from, children under thirteen (13) years of age. |
| Why can’t I limit all sharing? | Federal law gives you the right to limit only
- sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law. |
| What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else? | Your choices will apply to everyone on your account. |

Other important information

YOUR CALIFORNIA PRIVACY RIGHTS: If you are a California resident, California law may provide you with additional rights concerning Pacific Debt, Inc.’s collection, use, and disclosure of your personal information. Under the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA), companies that handle California consumer data and meet certain criteria must comply with obligations related to that data, including informing California consumers about the categories of data collected and the purpose for its collection, permitting them to opt out of the sale of such data, providing notice that the data is being collected, and responding to requests to delete such data. To learn more about your CCPA privacy rights, please visit www.pacificdebt.com and click the "Your California Privacy Rights" link or call us at 877-722-3328. In addition, under California’s "Shine the Light" law, personal information Pacific Debt receives from California residents in obtaining products or services for personal, family, or household use are entitled to request and obtain from us, once per calendar year, information concerning what, if any, of their personal information Pacific Debt has shared with third parties for their own direct marketing. If applicable, this would include the categories of information and the names and addresses of the businesses with which we shared information for the immediately preceding calendar year. To make a "Shine the Light" request, please email your name and complete address to customerservice@pacificdebt.com with "CA Shine the Light Privacy Request" in the subject line or write to us at: Pacific Debt, Inc., 750 B. St., Ste 1700, San Diego, CA 92101. Please note not all forms of information sharing are covered by California’s "Shine the Light" requirements and only sharing that is covered will be included in our response.

VERMONT RESIDENTS: In accordance with Vermont regulations, we automatically treat all individuals with Vermont mailing addresses as if you have requested that we not share your information with nonaffiliated third parties and that we limit the information, if any, that we share with Pacific Debt, Inc. affiliates. Further, we will not share information about a Vermont consumer's creditworthiness with any company, even affiliates, without obtaining consent. While we do not presently engage in joint marketing as defined above, if we do so in the future we will only disclose your name, address, contact information, and information about your transactions and experiences with Pacific Debt, Inc.

NEVADA RESIDENTS: We are providing you this notice under state law. You may be placed on our internal Do Not Call List by calling us at 877-722-3328.
