- His Life Story -

Eric Duvall Wheeler was born in Detroit, Michigan on December 16, 1959, to the union of Dura and Julia Wheeler.

Eric was a product of the Detroit Public Schools. He attended Marxhausen Elementary, Region 7 Middle School, Joy Junior High, and Edwin Denby High School. He furthered his education at Ferris State, and the University of Michigan.

Eric worked as a certified Tax Preparer, a former realtor for Keller Williams Realty, former Treasurer for the City of New Haven, and until his untimely death, Administrative Supervisor, at Adult Learning Systems.

Eric accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Saviour at an early age. In later years, he became a member at Rhema International Church, under the leadership of Bishop Eric Lloyd. While attending, he was an active member who participated and offered a helping hand when needed.

Eric was a one in a million type of man, who had a “BIG” heart. If it was within his power, there was nothing that he would not do for you. One thing he did for those he cared about whether asked or he volunteered was; enlighten people on the importance of a college education, or obtaining certification of a skill trade, the benefits of being a homeowner, and last but not least to file your taxes in a timely manner. Eric impressed upon people the importance of empowerment, and if it was within his power to assist you in reaching your goal, he would.

Then there was the hilarious Eric the comedian and Eric the prankster. As a child up to his untimely death he could put a smile on your face, or make you bust out into gut busting laughter. Although he was not a biological Father, he was a Father to many, and a great one at that!

Eric was called home to see the Face of GOD on October 15, 2018. His parents, Dura and Julia Wheeler as well as his sister, Brenda Wheeler preceded him in death. He leaves to cherish his memory two sisters, Pastor Carrie Wheeler-Moore and Delores; his nieces and nephews, Brandon, Brittany, Bridget, Bryan (Jasmine) and Bria; Rodney, Veronica, Sherry (Chris), Rochelle (Paul), Lisaette (Jordan) and Nathan (Reva); 22 great nieces and nephews; step sister, Shirley; his lifelong friend, Carolyn Ghant and a host of other relatives and friends.
