A Note from Fr. Jeeva.....

Dear Friends,

At one time or another, most of us get to a point where we need to bid others goodbye... but it's not always easy to come up with the right words to say 'goodbye' and express sentiments of gratitude. I am now in such a situation. As you all may know, I came over to St. Rose on July 1st 2014 to minister here as a parochial vicar. I was received well by Fr. Joe Byerley, the pastor, Fr. Peter Idler and Fr. Al Hewitt. I was made to feel welcome by you all. You were all very kind and generous to me. It is your love, care and affection that has made my stay here comfortable and my ministry a fruitful and enjoyable one.

It would not be an exaggeration if I say that I learned a lot from the priests here who are very pastoral in their approach and exemplary in their life, and the parishioners who are warm, kind and committed to the Faith. I would have loved to continue my ministry here. I came over here with the intention of staying and ministering here for two years. However, I have to go back to my native diocese since my bishop feels my service is needed over there. He has assigned me to "The Poondi Madha Basilica" our diocesan shrine of the Blessed Mother, as rector and parish priest. It is one of the two famous Marian Shrines in the state where I come from in India. (You can visit the following website to know more about the Shrine: www.poondimadhabasilica.org)

I will leave here on June 15th with a wealth of pastoral experience and I will always treasure it. Working here has been a fantastic learning experience and I am grateful to all the priests here, the deacons, Brian and Doug, and Fr. Byerley in a special way for accepting me here to minister with him to the people of God. I am thankful to every one of the staff members at the rectory office for having been very kind, affectionate and helpful to me. I also thank all the altar servers who do a wonderful job in the parish. I thank you all, dear parishioners, for accepting me and in a special way for wishing me, honoring me and praying for me on the occasion of the silver jubilee of my priestly ordination. I will never forget that experience. You have been extraordinarily kind to me.

Thank you so much. It's been a great pleasure ministering here and I will truly miss it. I take with me fond memories of your warm friendship, love and fruitful ministry, and I hope to one day leave an impression on others similar to the one you have left on me. What I do for you, for all that you have been to me and for me, is to pray for your families and your welfare. Good Bye!

Assuring you of my prayers and love.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Jeeva

Pentecost

The Church celebrates Pentecost as the day on which the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles and the Blessed Virgin Mary gathered in the “upper room” fulfilling Jesus' promise to send the Advocate who would guide the Church into all truth. The feast is called “Pentecost” since it is fifty days after Easter (from the Greek pentekostos which means “fifty”). Pentecost is also the official end of the Easter Season. The liturgical color for Pentecost is red, as a reminder of the flames that came down and rested on the Apostles and the Blessed Mother. After Pentecost, the Easter candle is moved from next to the Ambo (where the Word of God is proclaimed) to near the baptismal font. It is only then lit at baptisms and funerals, calling to mind the new life ushered in at the resurrection of Christ. The Holy Spirit gave the apostles gifts of grace through which they would undertake the evangelical mission of the Church.

The Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit as listed in the Catechism of the Catholic Church are: Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Knowledge, Piety, and Fear of the Lord. The Catechism teaches us that “The moral life of Christians is sustained by the gifts of the Holy Spirit. These are permanent dispositions which make man docile in following the promptings of the Holy Spirit.” (CCC §1830)

You may have also noticed a “Sequence” that was sung today that came after the second reading and before the Gospel Alleluia. The Sequence is a type of ancient liturgical hymn that has been preserved in the Mass during special Feasts. The Sequence is designed to highlight and add solemnity to these celebrations. There is a Sequence also for Christmas, Easter, and Corpus Christi.

House of Charity update

So far the wonderful people of Saint Rose of Lima have contributed a little over $113,000 of our $142,000 goal. That’s about 80%. We are at a terrific pace so far, please keep it up! The House of Charity/Bishop’s Annual Appeal is essential in providing critical social services to the poor and providing funding for needed diocesan programs. If you haven’t made your pledge yet, please do so, so that we can make our goal before the summer begins. Don’t forget that you can make an extended gift which you can pay over time. This allows you to make a larger gift without it being burdensome. The Lord and the many people helped by your generosity thank you.

Poor Boxes

There has sadly been a repeated issue here at the parish. Two times in a few weeks someone has stolen the money from our poor boxes. While we do our best to keep the church locked and secure when it is not being used, it seems that someone has more than once removed money from the poor boxes and candle money boxes. Please pray for this desperate person who has taken a pretty significant risk to do this. All of the money that is collected from our poor boxes goes directly to the Saint Vincent de Paul Society. I am not sure how much money they are out, but please keep this in mind the next time there is a donation request from the Saint Vincent de Paul Society. They are the ones who directly aid our own parishioners who have fallen on hard times.

God Bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

Spiritual Center Library

Do Catholics have fun? Sure they do! In our Spiritual Center Library, we have some wonderful books and videos about "Catholic Fun," such as the following books: "Do Black Patent Leather Shoes Reflect Up?" by J. Powers, "Nun Better, My Teachers the Sisters," How I flunked Penmanship and Other Tales of Growing up Catholic," by B. Snyder, "Growing Up Catholic by M. Meara, "How To Survive Being Married to a Catholic" and more. Sometimes we don't realize how much fun we are having until the days are over. This is especially noticed at Class Reunions when we see old friends, recall fond memories, sport triumphs, and hilarious events. Said one graduate, "Remember when Tom found the dead mouse behind the radiator? and THEN what happened? well, EVERYBODY stayed after school !! " Recall some "catholic" fun. Visit our parish library.
