GET READY FOR A
VROOM WITH A
VIEW AT COBBLE
BEACH'S CLASSY
CLASSIC CAR SHOW

Classic cars will meet spectacular scenery at Cobble Beach's second annual Concours d'Elegance, taking place on the shores of Georgian Bay Sept 14. The event will bring together collector automobiles from the past 100 years, to compete in 21 categories at the recently opened golf resort development. "Cobble Beach is immensely proud of our success in year one," says Rob McLeese, president of the Cobble Beach Concours d'Elegance. "We are committed to creating a lasting, quality show that Canadians can be proud of. Our growth is shown by the quality of judges and automotive personalities we have attracted from across the continent." Tickets are $40, with VIP packages available for up to $1,200. (And check out their real estate options while you're there.) cobblebeachconcours.com. National Post
