FACULTY

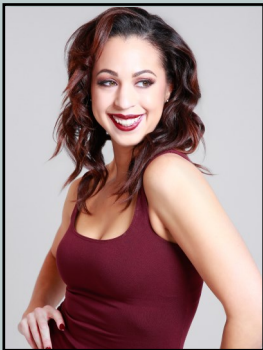

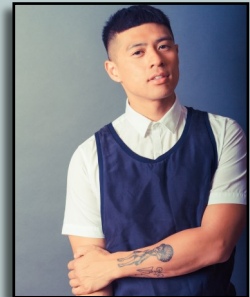

IVAN KOUMAEV

Ivan Koumaev hails from Russia, coming to the US at the ripe age of 8 years old. He began dancing at age 13 in Seattle, WA where he immediately fell in love with the art. At age 18 he was chosen to be one of the 20 finalists on the 2nd Season of Fox's So You Think You Can Dance. He quickly wowed the crowd with his talent and moved ahead to the top 6, landing him a spot on the US tour of the Live Show. He has since worked with the likes of Jason Derulo, Katy Perry, Miley Cyrus, Usher, Chris Brown, and Ne-Yo for various music videos, awards/TV shows and live performances. Most recently he performed in the 20/20 Experience World Tour with Justin Timberlake. Ivan can be spotted in commercials such as Microsoft and Pepsi, and can be seen in feature films including Step Up 3D, Footloose, and Rock of Ages.

Preston grew up in San Francisco studying all aspects of performing; singing with the SF Boys' Chorus in his preteens, doing musicals with a youth musical theater company, punching and kicking with Tat Wong Kung Fu Academy and studying dance at the Ruth Asawa School of the Arts High School. He recently shot episode 4 of Season 2 of Big Little Lies on HBO, choreographing a scene with Laura Dern, Nicole Kidman, Reese Witherspoon, Zoe Kravitz and many other cast members. In 2019, Preston had the honor of choreographing and staging a presentation of Cirque Du Soleil's newest stunt show, RUN at Comic Con in San Diego, CA. He is a founding choreographer for the hit TV show, the Masked Singer on the FOX. As a dancer, he has worked with some of the most iconic names in the industry; Janet Jackson, Britney Spears, John Legend, Chubby Checker.

PRESTON MUI

ORIALIS ASHLEY

A Puerto Rican native, Orialis has been seen tap dancing on Good Morning America, BET music awards, and at the London launch for Beyonce's IVY PARK clothing line. She is currently a member of Chloe Arnold's Syncopated Ladies and teaches full time at Murrieta Dance Project in Southern California. Orialis earned a Bachelors of Fine Arts Degree in Dance from Florida State University. There she was honored to work under master ballet and modern teachers such as Suzanne Ferrell, Ronald K Brown and Alonzo King. Following her college graduation, Orialis joined the Denver based Cleo Robinson Dance Ensemble in 2003. She toured nationally with the company as featured soloist in works by Talley Beatty, Christopher Huggins and Alvin Ailey.

Kurtis Sprung is a Dancer/Choreographer/Educator born in a small town in upstate New York. After obtaining a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance and Choreography at the University of Buffalo, Kurtis has gone on to perform with the Bad Boys of Dance, the Phoenix Ballet, Embodiment Collective and has choreographed for Nevada Ballet, Phoenix Ballet and for many small productions around the country. Most recently, Kurtis choreographed and originated a principal role for the Beatles-inspired Cirque du Soleil show "Love." Following the success of his work with Cirque, Kurtis moved to Los Angeles to pursue his choreographic career. He appeared on season 4 of World of Dance and is a former Dance Masters Mr. Dance of America.

KURTIS SPRUNG

FABIAN SANCHEZ

Fabian Sanchez is a professional dancer born in New York City, New York, who grew up in Colombia. He was the 2006 Mambo world champion and a former US American Rhythm Rising Star Champion. He appeared on Season 6 of Dancing with the Stars as a dance pro and was paired with Oscar winning actress Marlee Matlin. He returned to Dancing With The Stars for season 7 as a choreographer. Fabian and his wife currently reside in Birmingham, Alabama where they are owners of the Fred Astaire Dance Studios franchise.
