Hospital Car Service

01749 880 613

Do you have a transport need to get to that all important
Hospital or Medical appointment?

What is the Hospital Car Service and what areas does it cover?

This door to door service is provided for senior citizens, those with disabilities and socially excluded persons i.e. living in rural locations without access to local bus routes or those without access to their own car, and for journeys where Patient Transport Service is unable to help.

This service permits all residents registered in the Mendip Area & part of the Sedgemoor Area to access Hospitals located more than 12 miles away.

How much does the service cost?

Please call the booking line for details. Your Bus Pass will be valid using this scheme & will provide you with a discount on the total cost of travel, if your journey starts after 9.30 am. Payment will be required on day of travel.

How do I register?

Complete and return the attached Registration form .

How do I book a journey?

Once your registration is confirmed you can telephone the booking line on 01749 880613 to arrange your transport. For this service we recommend that you book as far in advance as possible.

Volunteer Drivers ALWAYS
Required
