The Epiphany of the Lord

January 6, 2019

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem!
Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you.
— Isaiah 60:1

Today we celebrate that Christ came to all of us, not just the Hebrews. He has given each of us unique gifts. We all have different yet equally valuable roles to play in the Body of Christ. Pray daily and ask God how He wants you to use your gifts so that we may all “be one”.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! The Lord shines upon you (Isaiah 60:1-6).

Psalm — Lord, every nation on earth will adore you (Psalm 72).

Second Reading — The Gentiles are coheirs, copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel (Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6).

Gospel — Magi from the east arrived, looking for the newborn king of the Jews (Matthew 2:1-12).

FINDING GOD

The splendid magi, all sparkle and dash and solemnity, march right up off the pages of Matthew's Gospel and into our churches today. Matthew alone tells us this grand and seductive story so that we might see the light and know that the child these magi visited is the fulfillment of prophecy, the king of the world that stretches to the magi's home country and beyond, right down the ages to us.

We too see and understand anew. Like the magi, our patron saints for this day, we see in the newborn child the king of the universe and light of the world. Like the magi, we find in ourselves a new faith and a new life. Like them, we return to our home by a new route.

We are asked to come away from this festive season ourselves renewed and awake to the presence of God among us. We are asked to find God where God is to be found, to be attentive and surprised and ready to bow down in adoration and to offer our gifts.

The Solemnity of the Epiphany is celebrated either on January 6 or, according to the decision of the episcopal conference, on the Sunday between January 2 and January 8. The young Messiah is revealed as the light of the nations. Yet, as the antiphon for the Magnificat at Second Vespers reminds us, three mysteries are encompassed in this solemnity: the adoration of the Christ Child by the Magi, the Baptism of Christ and the wedding feast at Cana. Extra candles and/or lamps may be placed around the sanctuary and in other parts of the church to honor Christ revealed as the Light of the Gentiles (Ceremonial of Bishops). It is customary to replace the images of the shepherds at the crib with the three Magi and their gifts.

— Ceremonies of the Liturgical Year, Msgr. Peter J. Elliott, Ignatius Press.

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God gift's and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”

WELCOME TO OUR NEW PASTOR

Reverend Raymund Macapinlac Reyes

Father Ray was born and raised in the town of Minalin, Pampanga, whose patron saint is Saint Monica and in whose honor a church was built during the Spanish era and was declared a National Cultural Treasure by the National Commission for Culture of the Philippines. He attended high school at the Don Bosco Juniorate in Bacolor, Pampanga. After finishing high school, he continued his college and theology studies at the Mother of Good Counsel Seminary in San Fernando, Pampanga.

Father Ray was ordained in 1988 and served for the next ten years as Vice Rector of the Cathedral Church of the Archdiocese of San Francisco, pastor of Saint Augustine Church in Caingin, Masantol, and pastor of Saint Joseph Church in San Jose Malino, Mexico, Pampanga. He comes from a large family with six brothers and a sister. His elderly parents, Marino and Elisa Reyes, have been residing near Saint Patrick Church in San Francisco since 1995.

In 1998, upon the invitation of the late Monsignor Fred Al Bitanga, Father Ray was given permission to come to the Archdiocese of San Francisco to serve as the parochial vicar of Saint Patrick Church in the heart of the South of Market district. Five years later, he was transferred to Marin County and assigned as parochial vicar at Saint Isabella Church in San Rafael. In 2006, a year after his incardination in the Archdiocese of San Francisco, Father Ray was appointed by Archbishop Niederauer as the parochial administrator of Saint Anne of the Sunset Church in San Francisco, where he would later be installed as its pastor for the next eight years. In 2014, Archbishop Cordileone appointed him to succeed Bishop William Justice as the Vicar for Clergy of the Archdiocese.

Beginning January 1, 2019, Father Ray will assume another pastoral assignment from Archbishop Cordileone as the next pastor of Saint Augustine Church in South San Francisco. He will continue to serve as Vicar for Clergy and Liaison for the Catholic Charismatic Renewal in the Archdiocese of San Francisco.
