MASS OF THE PEOPLE of MISSA PRO POPULO in Latin...

You may have heard this particular intention being offered at the 9:30am Mass every Sunday here in our parish. This particular mass is sometimes called the parochial mass, or the parish Mass, and it has always been offered every week by the pastor and sometimes by his associates. Canon Law 534.1 states, "When the pastor has taken possession of his parish, he is bound on each Sunday and holyday of obligation to apply the Mass for the people entrusted to him. If he is lawfully impeded from this celebration, he is to have someone else apply the Mass on these days or apply it himself on other days." Canon Law 534.3 further says that, "if the pastor who has not discharged the obligations mentioned in 534.1 is to apply for the people as many Masses as he has omitted as soon as possible."

Beloved St. Augustine's Parishioners, as I am required to offer the Missa Pro Populo, know that an intention on your behalf will always be offered every week and during holy days of obligation. In my absence, Father Ed and Father Martin are very much willing to offer this special intention at this mass on your behalf. This is certainly what happens when I am on vacation. I'm allowed to entrust the mass to my associate priests. However, there's always the opportunity for me to offer my own personal Mass for you during my time away.

Allow me to share this reflection on Missa Pro Populo that became viral to many Catholic parishioners. It was a blog in 2011 by Father Tom Elliot, a priest of the Little Rock Diocese. He was on vacation and wrote about his parish: "Despite the fact that I'm away from Christ the King Church this weekend, I just finished celebrating a Mass for all of my parishioners. It was a beautiful reminder to me that I am part of a parish family and I feel privileged to have the opportunity to pray for the people the bishop has entrusted to my care."

Fr. Elliot's example spurred and renewed in me the grace I am empowered to share with you as your pastor. I believe this is what the Parish Mass intention should remind us: that we are part of something larger, the family of God here at Saint Augustine's Church. Every Missa Pro Populo proclaims this beautiful truth that every member of the Parish Family is being prayed for each and every week.

To celebrate our time together as a Parish Family, please drop by the Parish Hall after the 9:30am Missa Pro Populo. Coffee and Donuts are now being served regularly after the 9:30am Parish Mass. This gathering is always a great way to catch up with friends and meeting new people. We are grateful to Deo and Khay Acosta for spearheading this important ministry. If there are other parish ministries or groups that would like to host one of the Sunday fellowships after the Missa Pro Populo Mass, please contact Deo and Khay at 650-455-1060 or email them at khay_r@yahoo.com.

World Mission Sunday at Saint Augustine Church, October 26-27

World Mission Sunday is an opportunity to help missions throughout the world by contributing generously to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. It is also a worldwide Eucharistic celebration for the Missions and missionaries, within the Extraordinary Missionary Month of October, as called for by Pope Francis. As Archbishop Cordileone has written, "Pope Francis invites all baptized Christians to a personal encounter with Jesus Christ through prayer, meditation on the Word of God, and pilgrimage.... I invite all of us in this Archdiocese to take this opportunity to revitalize our ardor, passion, and zeal for the faith with loving, missionary hearts."

HEALING MASS

Cathedral of Saint Mary of the Assumption

Father Vito Perrone COSJ
Principal Celebrant

The Contemplatives of Saint Joseph Monastic Order (COSJ)

Thursday, October 31, 2019 7:00 p.m.

IS ANYONE AMONG YOU SICK?

He should summon the presbyters of the church, and they should pray over him and anoint him with oil in the name of the Lord, and the prayer of faith will save the sick person, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed any sins, he will be forgiven.

~ James 5:14-15

This Healing Mass for Spirit, Mind or Body offers a spiritually phenomenal homily, transcendent music and powerful prayers. You are welcome to write your intentions on a list in at the front doors prior to Mass to be prayed for by the Father Vito Perrone COSJ during the prayer of intercessions. After the Mass YOU are invited to sit in individual chairs before the Blessed Sacrament and then to have a Priest, Deacon, Brother or an affiliated Sister pray for you individually for Healing.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — As long as Moses kept his hands raised up, Israel had the better of the fight (Exodus 17:8-13).

Psalm — Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth (Psalm 121).

Second Reading — Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed (2 Timothy 3:14,4:2).

Gospel — Will not God secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? (Luke 18:1-8).

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

Monday: Rom 4:20-25; Lk 1:69-75; Lk 12:13-21

Tuesday: Rom 5:12, 15b, 17-19, 20b-21; Ps 40:7-10, 17; Lk 12:35-38

Wednesday: Rom 6:12-18; Ps 124:1b-8; Lk 12:39-48

Thursday: Rom 6:19-23; Ps 1:1-4, 6; Lk 12:49-53

Friday: Rom 7:18-25a; Ps 119:66, 68, 76-77, 93-94; Lk 12:54-59

Saturday: Rom 8:1-11; Ps 24:1b-4ab, 5-6; Lk 13:1-9

PERSISTENCE

Today's readings are about persistence, passionate persistence. Exodus tells of a battle won despite weariness because Moses, with help from Aaron and Hur, held his hands raised. Timothy asks that same persistence of his community and us. Luke tells of a court case won by a widow, despite the dishonesty of the judge, because she will not leave him alone. The psalm reminds us that God is everywhere, guarding us from harm day and night, coming and going, now and forever. The readings are about persistence, the relentless, unwavering pursuit of what must not be lost. The readings are about God's passionate persistence in pursuing us, seeking to win our hearts.

OCTOBER MONTH OF MARY LIVING ROSARY
October 26, 2019, 5:30 PM in the church

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Although the hours of daylight are rapidly dwindling, many people would say that these October days bring the year's most splendid weather. Americans are riders and joggers, not strollers, and so the pleasures of the season are often lost on us. This is not the case with many Jewish people, who observe an ancient rule in walking to synagogue on the Sabbath. On city streets and suburban sidewalks in many cities, we may notice around sunset the nicely dressed families walking and chatting on Friday afternoon. After a short prayer at dusk, the families stroll home again for a relaxing and festive meal. They return to synagogue in the morning, and then spend an afternoon in family leisure until three stars appear in the night sky and Sabbath ends.

Catholics, on the other hand, pile into the car and drive even a short distance to Mass; some even divide the family to participate at different hours. For Jews, the leisurely walk marks a dividing line between hectic life commitments and a day of abundant joy and enrichment. Before we became an automobile culture, Catholics embraced a similar pace, and in most places walked to church. These lovely days of fall invite us to tap into an old and life-giving tradition. If you live within a mile of your church, walk next week. If you must drive, park at a good distance and walk the rest of the way. Talk about your life, greet strangers, notice the crunch of leaves under your shoes. You may be surprised at how different Sunday Mass feels when it is framed by leisure!
