Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 5, 2014

Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God.

— Philippians 4:6

IN THE VINEYARD

As usual, today's first and third scripture readings are obviously related, with the second continuing one of Paul's Letters—these days, the Letter to the Philippians. The vineyard stories from Isaiah and Matthew both talk about evildoers coming to a bad end.

In Isaiah, it's the vineyard itself that produces "wild grapes" instead of the crop the owner dreamed of and worked for. So it will be "trampled" and "overgrown with thorns." In Matthew, those to whom the owner leased the vineyard destroy the dream. So the owner "will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants" (Matthew 21:41).

Yes, if we reject divine love we come to a bad end. And with all this talk of the unfaithful being trampled and thrown out, it's consoling to hear Paul's message to the Philippians, who were by no means perfect. "Have no anxiety at all," Paul said. "Then the God of peace will be with you" (Philippians 4:6, 9).

THANK YOUs

- On September 25, 2014, St. Augustine Church sponsored the "Paring Bolanon Concert", who performed and appealed in our community for much needed funds in rebuilding the historic churches brought to the ground by the 7.2 magnitude earthquake in the Philippines. Our parish raised $9,000.00 for this purpose. Fr. Rene and his staff applauds your generosity.
- At this same event, a group of young adults headed by Ian Del Castillo, son of Linda Del Castillo, (Executive Chef) and his company of culinarians (Juan Pablo Gonzalez, Samuel Diep, Bryan Aquino and Kaya Kachigian) called "Classic Cuisine". offered their services and showcased their passion for cooking by providing meticulously prepared appetizers and a special dinner for the guest priests from Tagbilaran and visiting priests from the Archdiocese of San Francisco. They are students of the Culinary and Hospitality Studies program at City College of San Francisco (the first of its kind offering a 2year hospitality program in the country). Thank you, Classic Cuisine!
- To those who assisted, provided food, and helped in the preparation for Deacon Bob Bertolani's Memorial Mass and Msgr. Juan Alarcon's Vigil Service, Funeral Mass, and their receptions, your benevolent deeds are profoundly acknowledged and appreciated.
