OUR MISSION

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

November 23, 2014

"I was hungry and you gave me food,
I was thirsty and you gave me drink."

— Matthew 25:35

THE LORD'S FLOCK

Sheep are high-maintenance animals. They are not very intelligent. Without guidance and care, especially in a climate like Israel's, they would die quickly from predators, starvation, or just their own slowness. The scriptural image of us as the Lord's flock is not terribly flattering to us, since it is only the never-ending diligence of a watchful shepherd that allows the flock to survive.

The feast of Christ the King was intended to call the world back to Christ as the sole power of the world, to bring back a flock that had been scattered by many negative forces of the growing industrial, scientific, and war-torn world of the early twentieth century. It is fitting that, as we celebrate Christ the King, we hear about Christ the Shepherd who cares for us and who, likewise, will be there at the end of time. Interestingly enough, as the Gospel illustrates, our own destiny is determined by the way we have been "shepherds" to the rest of the flock.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — I will rescue my scattered sheep (Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17).

Psalm — The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want (Psalm 23).

Second Reading — As in Adam all die, so too in Christ all shall be brought to life (1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28).

Gospel — Whatever you did to the least ones, you did to me (Matthew 25:31-46).

START WITH GRATITUDE

Gratitude is the inward feeling of kindness received. Thankfulness is the natural impulse to express that feeling. Thanksgiving is the following of that impulse.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Coming to the end of the Church year, we can wonder how we got "extreme unction" out of "anointing of the sick." "Extreme" comes from a Latin phrase, in extremis, which in English refers to the last struggle of a dying person. "Last rites" is a phrase in common usage, and refers to the fact that years ago everyone waited until the last crisis of illness to summon the priest. The goal of anointing had always been healing and forgiveness, but in time it began to be seen as a preparation for death. In a hard world, almost anything from a hangnail to a sneeze could be life-threatening, so perhaps the change was inevitable. The emphasis on the penitential aspects was heightened, even to the odd practice of Rome in the twelfth century, when the sick person was sprinkled with ashes mixed with holy water and given a hair shirt as a sign of penance.

The reformers thankfully overlooked some of these oddities of history, and today the sacrament of the sick is much more generously applied to persons in a wide range of situations. Still, it is a sacrament of reconciliation, and for that reason is not celebrated for an infant or toddler, although there is a rite for a visit to a sick child not including anointing or Communion.

FR. RAMON "MON" MORES, SJ †

Fr. Ramon M. Mores, SJ, the rector of Ateneo de Zamboanga from 1969-1971, and from 1977-1979, passed away on November 16, Sunday from undisclosed causes.

He was 86.

Wake masses will be held for him at the Loyola House of Studies (LHS) in Ateneo de Manila University at 8 pm. A funeral mass will be held on Friday, November 21, at 8 am, also at the LHS.

Mores was the last rector and head of the said university before its Board elected a president. Fr. Mon, as he is fondly called, also served in the General Curia of the Society of Jesus in Rome and was rector of Xavier University in Cagayan de Oro for several years.

His last assignment was as parish priest of the Sacred Heart Parish and Shrine in Cebu. Born on November 5, 1928, Mores entered the Society of Jesus on May 30, 1947 and was ordained a priest on June 18, 1960.

(courtesy of CBCP News)

He was our clergy in residence for five years in St. Augustine Church during Fr. Rene's first term of administration. He was adored like a father; he showed his artistic side in the posters and banners he designed; and, he enjoyed cooking for fellow priests (no one complained about the amount of oil he put in the dish). Most of all, Fr. Mon rendered homilies which admonished us like children and it stuck in your head! We love and miss you...
