Reynaldo "Rey" Pimentel † 01-09-47 to 10-25-20

We are deeply saddened with the passing of REY PIMENTEL who served as the Finance Council Chairperson of this parish in the last thirteen years. He was actively involved in the planning, decision making, and implementation of actions that served the common good of the parish when it came to its financial budget and resources. He gave full attention and dedication to his task with such candor. He was a retired certified accountant, who after a long service with Blue Cross of California, served this parish in the capacity of Finance Council president.

Kuya Rey is described by a close associate as a "compassionate friend who would not hesitate to go to the rescue of the people he cared for, such as using his bare hands to pick up and patch up a fallen and bleeding friend or go out of his way to confront a wayward one with a piece of his mind. He was capable of standing firmly on his ground whenever he believed that he was right unless proven otherwise.

Our hearts and prayers reach out to his wife, Fe, and children, Michael and Raymund and their families.

EXPECTING THE UNEXPECTED

If it ever crossed your mind that Jesus was somewhat lacking in a sense of humor, today's Gospel should belie any such notion. Jesus' story of the five wise and five foolish bridesmaids is downright hilarious. The circumstances of the story were surely familiar to Jesus' listeners, just as they are—if we think about it—to us. Weddings never, ever start on time. There's always a delay. Buttons pop off at the last minute. Flowers wilt. Cars full of wedding guests get caught in traffic. Soloists contract laryngitis. Brides or grooms or priests show up late! So the only reasonable way to approach a wedding is with a sense of humor, to realize that something probably will go awry, and, when that happens, to smile about it.

Jesus tells this funny story to encourage us to be watchful, yes; to be ready, yes. But he doesn't tell it to make us dour and somber. The heavy-hearted tremble, waver, lose sight of their place and purpose, and fall asleep. The lighthearted know that the unexpected will happen—is bound to happen—so they are awake in their place and ready in their purpose when it comes.

PRAYER AFTER AN ELECTION

God of all nations, Father of the human family, we give you thanks for the freedom we exercise and the many blessings of democracy we enjoy in these United States of America. We ask for your protection and guidance for all who devote themselves to the common good, working for justice and peace at home and around the world. We lift up all our duly elected leaders and public servants, those who will serve us as president, as legislators and judges, those in the military and law enforcement. Heal us from our differences and unite us, O Lord, with a common purpose, dedication, and commitment to achieve liberty and justice in the years ahead for all people, and especially those who are most vulnerable in our midst. Amen.
