Saint Augustine Parish is a worshipping community that enthusiastically manifests faith through action, with open arms for all of God's children.

OUR MISSION

We live God's Word and continue His Work.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

June 22, 2014

Not by bread alone does one live,
but by every word that comes forth
from the mouth of the LORD.

— Deuteronomy 8:3b

AMEN

Take a look around the walls of your church. Even if it's only a year or two old, the word "Amen" has resounded off those walls countless times at the conclusion of the Eucharistic Prayer and as the faithful have come forward to receive the Body and Blood of Christ. Today's feast is about those "Amens" offered in faith, offered in times of trouble or doubt, spoken in joy, spoken mindlessly, but all given to God in a multitude of ways. It is our very lives that lie behind our "Amens" and are touched by the presence of Christ, the presence we celebrate today. More importantly, we celebrate the love of Christ for us shown in the sacrifice on Calvary and that he continues to give to us in every celebration of the Eucharist. What can we do but rejoice in that great love, and then go out into the world and live that love in sacrificing for others?

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Never forget the LORD your God, who brought you out of slavery (Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14b-16a).

Psalm — Praise the Lord, Jerusalem (Psalm 147).

Second Reading — Because the loaf of bread is one, we who partake of it, though we are many, are one body

(1 Corinthians 10:16-17).

Gospel — Jesus said, "I am the living bread; whoever eats this bread will live forever" (John 6:51-58).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Ordinary Time beckons, and so on this Sunday we surrender the last glimmers of paschal joy as we celebrate the renewal of our life around the table of the Eucharist. This feast reminds us that the goal of the catechumen's journey through Lent is not the baptismal font at Easter, but rather the experience of Pentecost. It is all about life lived in the Spirit's embrace in relationship to the Body of Christ, which is found both "on the table" and "at the table."

The season of confirmation is also drawing to a close, and this feast serves as a reminder that this sacrament, a solemn sending from font to table, is keyed to renewed vigor. Confirmation has sometimes been sadly misunderstood as a kind of graduation from religious formation, but it is nothing of the sort. It is about being led by the Lord Jesus to the place where the Spirit flourishes, and where the gifts of the Spirit are most easily detectable. After next week we will resume our consideration of the sacrament of confirmation, its rich and somewhat tangled history, its challenging theology, and its changing celebration.

CHARISMATIC MASS

Friday, July 11, 2014
 7:00 PM
 St. Augustine Church

Please come and participate at the Holy Mass and Healing by Fr. Joseph (Joey) Ayala Faller on Tuesday, July 1st, 2014 at 7:00pm at St Augustine's Church.

Fr. Joey Faller is a highly gifted and anointed instrument of God. Born in Lucban, Quezon in the Philippines, he was ordained priest at St. Ferdinand Cathedral in Lucena City on September 9, 1989. In 1998, he founded the Kamay Ni Hesus (Hand of Jesus) Ministry Foundation, Inc., which has a Healing Center in Barangay Tinamnan in Lucban. Since 2001, he has been the Chairman of the National Service Committee of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal Movement in the Philippines.

After several assignments in the Diocese of Lucena, Fr. Joey decided to devote full-time in the Healing Ministry upon hearing from people stories and incidents of healing attributed to his ministering. At first, he refused to believe God's gift to him, asking God why a person like him would be chosen to be a healer. Fr. Joey later realized that he was truly blessed and he totally embraced God's gift of healing on April 8, 1994 when he had an accident that almost cost him his life. His right hand was injured and his small finger and index finger became permanently curled down and could not be straightened despite surgery. He realized that his right hand seemed to resemble that of the Infant Jesus, known as Sto. Nino and of the Risen Lord. For him, the accident confirmed God's call to become His instrument of healing. His right hand is a constant reminder that it is God's healing hands that work through him. Since then, he has carried the hands of the Lord to heal other people. There are numerous testimonies of those who experienced physical, spiritual and emotional healing as manifestations of God's healing power working through Fr. Joey.

VISITING MISSIONARY says "Thank you"!

Father Joseph J Arackal V.C. and all the Vincentian Missionaries thank you for your prayers and generous mission offerings of last weekend. We want to thank especially Father Rene and Father Ed and the parish staff for their most generous and gracious assistance and kind hospitality. Your support and encouragement will help the missionaries to face the enormous challenges in bringing food, shelter, education and most importantly the Gospel message to the poor. Your offerings will help the Vincentian Congregation to carry out their many missionary, educational and charitable activities in the mission countries and will help them educate young men studying for priesthood. If you like help an individual seminarian in his studies for priesthood you may write: Vincentian Fathers, 210 5th Ave SE St. Cloud, MN 56304-1004.
