Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 7, 2014

“If two of you agree on earth
about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father.”

— Matthew 18:19

SPEAKING OUT IN LOVE

In the final verses of today's Gospel reading Jesus says that when two or three are gathered in his name, “there am I in the midst of them” (Matthew 18:20). So we understand that fraternal correction is always undertaken in the presence of Jesus Christ.

Likewise, encouraging the good in others is not only the right thing for us to do, it is a necessity. The LORD tells the prophet Ezekiel that if he does not speak out to dissuade a person from evil, then he too will be held responsible.

We live in a “do your own thing” age where moral objectivity is often ignored. Clearly when the message we share with others is rooted in love, our motives cannot ever be misinterpreted. As Saint Paul writes, “Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law” (Romans 13:10).

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Warn the wicked and try to turn them from their ways (Ezekiel 33:7-9).

Psalm — If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts (Psalm 95).

Second Reading — Owe nothing to anyone, except mutual love (Romans 13:8-10).

Gospel — If two agree about anything for which they pray, it shall be granted to them (Matthew 18:15-20).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We know for certain that the sacrament of penance was a fairly rare event in the life of a Christian in the early centuries, but that everyone had a duty to admit their sins and ask forgiveness before giving thanks in the Sunday Eucharist and receiving Christ's Body and Blood at the table. Everyone today is familiar with this same ancient pattern. We also know about Lent and its journey of renewal, and even those who are returning from summer vacations may speak of a fresh perspective on life and a resolve to do better. Saint Augustine spoke of a third kind of penance, beyond the turning of the catechumens to a different life, beyond the normal everyday fresh starts, to a form that is severe and serious. Certain sins broke faith with the community: the sinners were obliged to give their names to the bishop and were barred from participation in the Eucharist. Augustine mentioned sacrilege, adultery, and murder as the culprits, great wounds for the perpetrator, wounds that were serious, deadly, mortal. Penance was such a frightening prospect that many people delayed their baptism for fear that they would sin, a practice with which Augustine was well acquainted. Pastoral need would eventually call the church to reconsider its practice.

MUSICAL CONCERT FOR A CAUSE

FREE ADMISSION

An Evening of Religious and Contemporary Music

Third generation Boholano singing priests will appeal to the community of St. Augustine Parish through their deep and ringing voices - chanting in chorus with the hopes of reaching out to benevolent hearts.

A project for the rehabilitation of the earthquake-damaged churches in Bohol.

Come and let us be one in Spirit!

WATER SHORTAGE EMERGENCY

A water shortage emergency has been implemented in our district as implemented by Governor Jerry Brown because of extreme drought conditions in the entire state of California.

An ordinance has been adopted that "limits or prohibits the use of potable water for watering or irrigating lawns or landscape, washing hard-surface areas, cleaning/filling/or maintaining levels in fountains, etc.

Limit watering duration to 15 minutes watering 2 days a week maximum. Watering or irrigating of lawn or landscape is also prohibited between the hours of 8:00 am and 7:00 pm.

Violation of these ordinances will be considered waste and an unreasonable use of water and subject to penalties.

If a customer is in violation, a written notice will be sent to the customer. If a violation is not corrected within 72 hours after receipt of notice and no exception appeal has been sent to their office, a violation notice will be posted on the property. If customer does not correct the violation within 48 hours of posting, the District may restrict or terminate the customer's water service".

PLEASE CONSERVE WATER & USE IT EFFICIENTLY.
