CONVERSATIONAL
LEADERSHIP:
Inspiring people,
Inspiring change

R U OK?™

A special event for all leaders and aspiring leaders to harness the power and value of conversation

Meaningful conversations in business can help achieve successful change, and have a positive impact on the bottom line.

Join some of Australia's most celebrated keynote speakers and find out how to transform an everyday conversation into a meaningful conversation.
This half day event is for leaders or aspiring leaders who can help create change in their workplace, build leadership potential and new opportunities.

You'll take away insights to help you:

- Lead face-to-face meaningful conversations to generate value for all parties
- Build authentic and sustained relationships with colleagues and clients
- Manage conversations across your team to build a more effective workplace culture

All proceeds from this event will support
R U OK?'s Community Ambassador program.

R U OK?™
A conversation could change a life.

Speakers

Graeme Cowan

International speaker and best-selling author, who helped Gavin Larkin start the R U OK? movement. Graeme is a regular presenter on national and international media about enhancing workplace resilience.

Glenn Capelli

A professional speaker of thirty years experience, Glenn delivers innovation, leadership, creativity and dynamic thinking to audiences around the world. He is one of Australia's most awarded and sought-after speakers with powerful and original ideas for living better, smarter and wiser in today's world.

Phil Preston

As Founder of The Collaborative Advantage, Phil unlocks the full potential of people, businesses and organisations, empowering them to rise above ordinary and make an extraordinary difference in the world.

Avril Henry

Is a game-changer, an internationally-acclaimed keynote speaker and provocateur who is passionate about transforming leadership models, building diversity capabilities and reforming out-dated workplace practices.

Kamal Sarma

Author of the book Mental Resilience, with an amazing array of life experiences that includes living in a monastery, raising funds to rescue child soldiers, and rescuing victims of sexual trafficking in Cambodia, Nepal and India. Kamal is also the director of the strategic leadership firm Rezilium.

Lisa McInnes-Smith

Lisa is a gifted communicator who has presented to 2 million people across 26 countries - so far! Lisa is passionate and provocative and a master of shifting behaviour. Lisa knows what it takes for people to change—to change direction, change attitude, change behaviour and change outcomes.

John Pastorelli

John's enthusiasm is on crafting and delivering rich customer experiences, which included working as a member of the start-up team for BridgeClimb. He has written a book on this subject and delivers workshops and presentations on bettering the experiences for customers both inside and outside the business.

Neryl East

Dr Neryl East is an international speaker and best-selling author on communication and credibility, who shows leaders and teams how to stand out, accelerate success and avoid costly reputation mistakes.

Suzanne Waldron

Suzanne is the author of A Flourishing Mind, Director of Stories Out Loud & R U OK? Ambassador. Working with leaders in her field of Behavioural Change, she facilitates and speaks around Australia helping influential teams achieve alignment and cohesion.

Peter Merrett

Specialises in 'Bringing Wonderful to Life' to create vibrant and exceptionally successful customer and team experiences. His fun-filled and thought-provoking message leaves you nothing left to say other than "of course!".

Josie Larkin

Daughter of Gavin Larkin (founder of R U OK?), and an enthusiastic advocate and supporter of her father's vision.
