Gondola Pizza House

Have You Ever Tried to Imagine...

What kind of world this would be if we had no friends? We would say it would be pretty bleak and dismal, Without the tremendous help and encouragement of our many friends in and out of this community it would have been an impossibility for our dream and ambition – to build Gondola Pizza House – to become a reality. It gives us the greatest feelings in the world when we think of the faith and trust these people, “our friends” have in us and our capabilities.

“The richest man, without a friend, is poor with all he has to spend.”
