EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

As Stock Gardens celebrates moving into its 10th year, owners Grant and Debs explain how exceptional customer service and attention to detail has been the key to building their successful business.

and build – but it's the company's core brand values and personal service that makes them unique.

"Customers like that we offer a range of services and they consistently return to Stock Gardens for further works or garden maintenance," says Debs. "We call all our new customers to check they are happy with our work - the fantastic feedback we receive makes us really proud."

Personal enjoyment and a passion for gardening, coupled with a background in sales and project management led Grant and Debs to take a leap of faith and set up Stock Gardens in 2008. Based in Stock, they offer a spectrum of gardening services, from maintenance contracts to design

"It's also our unique understanding of both hard landscape and horticulture that allows us to tackle and deliver projects differently to others," adds Grant.

A true passion for gardening, exceptional customer service and the desire to help each team member grow, have been the key factors in Stock Gardens' success.

"Building a team of talented individuals is the single most important aspect to me," says Grant, "We strive to deliver exceptional results, as we're all really passionate about what we do – our professional, hard-working teams really go the extra mile to ensure every customer is looked after."
