The Coalition expects each member of the Young Professionals Group to fulfill the following obligations:

- An initial gift to the Coalition made upon joining (suggested minimum gift amount of $50)
- Attend a minimum of 75% of monthly meetings
- Attend a minimum of 75% of YPG-organized awareness and/or fundraising events
- Volunteer at a minimum of once per year, either at a Coalition event or with a direct service agency

In addition to the specific requirements above, the Coalition has general expectations that Young Professionals Group members will:

- Leverage personal and/or professional networks to support membership recruitment,
- Actively participate in event planning, committee work, fundraising, and other initiatives

The Coalition will use a point tracking system to help members meet their membership obligations and ensure member activities continue to align with the Coalition’s interests and priorities. Members must earn a minimum of 500 points to remain in good standing.

- Annual contribution made upon joining: $1 = 1 point, $50 minimum suggested gift = 50 points
- Volunteer for a program or special event: 100 points per volunteer session.
- Attending 75% of monthly meetings: 40 points per meeting, 9 meetings per year = 360 points
  - By simply meeting the first three membership obligations, members will earn 510 points

Members who earn 750 points will join the "Leadership Circle." Members can earn additional points by participating in the following activities:

- Attendance at YPG Events: 50 points per event
- Recruit new members: 50 points per new member.
- Host a social/awareness event: 100 points per event.
- Secure monetary or in-kind gifts (company event sponsorship, marketing/graphic design support, etc.): 200 points per contribution.
- Make an additional financial contribution: $1 = 1 point.
