The Landlord is not responsible for resolving Tenant conflicts, including making decisions among one Tenant's rights over another. If the conflict involves the accusation of illegal activity, physical harm, or other misconduct that is said to have occurred in the property, then law enforcement personnel should be involved to the extent needed. The Landlord is not a law enforcement officer and therefore does not have the authority to resolve such matters, although it is advisable to bring any legal matters to the Landlord's attention.

- 22 NON-WAIVER. No waiver of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained or any breach thereof by Landlord shall be taken to constitute a waiver of any other subsequent breach of such covenants or agreements or justify or authorize the non-observance at any other time of the same or of any other covenants or agreements hereof.
- 23 HEADINGS. The section headings herein have been inserted for purposes of reference only, and in no way define, or limit the scope or intent of this Lease or in any way affect this Lease.

- 25 RENEWAL. This Lease is not automatically renewable. The terms of a new lease for subsequent periods shall not necessarily be the same as this Lease. The Tenants' interest in signing a new lease does not guarantee that an opportunity will be awarded. All requests of Tenants' interest to sign another lease must be in writing.
