'Dial for Miles' – Call Rex Miles Plumbing

BY KATHY YOUNG

Special Sections Assistant Editor

When you need a plumber, you often have no time to waste. Whether you are experiencing a plumbing emergency or just need something repaired or replaced, when you “dial for Miles” — Rex Miles Plumbing — you get a prompt and courteous response and fast, efficient service.

Rex Miles Plumbing, also known as Miles Plumbing, is a family-owned business offering plumbing service and repair to the entire High Desert. The company has been in business in the High Desert since 1987, and Rex is the fourth generation. He has more than 20 years of experience and learned about plumbing “on the job.” He worked with Benjamin C. Croel of A-1 Plumber for five years. He feels working with Benjamin gave him even more experience. He gave him the confidence and ambition to move forward and make Rex Miles Plumbing the successful business it is today.

Rex Miles Plumbing does both residential and commercial work. The list of plumbing tasks is very comprehensive. Water heater repair or replacement, drain cleaning, electronic leak detection and repair, copper repiping and other remodel projects are all tasks that Rex Miles Plumbing can handle. Mobile home plumbing repairs are another specialty.

Area businesses such as Shear Realty “dial for Miles.” Rex is also a warranty representative for Bradford White Water Heaters and is a licensed contractor with the Southwest Gas Referral Program.

If you're having problems with your garbage disposal, you want to change your bathroom or kitchen faucets, you need installation of a pressure regulator, you are experiencing gas line issues or your swamp cooler is not working or needs its regular service check, give Rex Miles Plumbing a call.

“Dial for Miles” with confidence, too. Rex Miles Plumbing is licensed, bonded and insured. Senior discounts are available, and all major credit cards are accepted.

Rex Miles Plumbing has had a daily advertisement in the Daily Press for six years. The customers he has met through these ads are “the best,” he says. A good portion of his business comes from happy customers who tell their friends that Rex Miles Plumbing is “the best.”

It's easy to “dial for Miles” — call 760-244-2391 anytime.
