In a world of perennial fire and growing extinctions, Anna's aged mother is dying. Condemned by their pity to living she increasingly escapes through her hospital window into visions of horror and delight. When Anna's finger vanishes and a few months later her knee disappears, Anna too feels the pull of the window. She begins to see that all around her others are similarly vanishing, but no one else notices. All Anna can do is keep her mother alive. But the window keeps opening wider, taking Anna and the reader ever deeper into a strangely beautiful story about hope and love and orange-bellied parrots.

FUTURE GIRL

Asphyxia

Paperback RRP $24.99

Future Girl is the art journal of sixteen-year-old Piper, a visual extravaganza of text, paint, collage and drawings, woven into a deeply engaging story. Future Girl explores what it means to come of age as a Deaf teenager, against the backdrop of a near-future Melbourne on the brink of environmental catastrophe. Age: 13+

'Asphyxia's work is brilliant: a deep, original insight, and a book that everyone should read.'

– Jackie French, AM

'Asphyxia tilts the world sideways and invites you to see what was always there. Don't miss this book.'

– Amie Kaufman

Message from author, Asphyxia

'In Future Girl, I made Piper d/Deaf because I realised how little most hearing people know about d/Deafness. When I first tried to write about Piper's experience, I found myself stuck, because being Deaf is something I don't think about a lot. I found I didn't know how to articulate it. So I started jotting down my everyday experiences – the little annoyances, the benefits, confusion, the irritating things people say and do, and the complex feelings that arise when someone has tried to provide access but misses the mark.'

A LIFE ON OUR PLANET

David Attenborough
Hardback RRP $39.99

'I am 93. I've had an extraordinary life. It's only now that I appreciate how extraordinary. As a young man, I felt I was out there in the wild, experiencing the untouched natural world – but it was an illusion.'

The tragedy of our time has been happening all around us, barely noticeable from day to day – the loss of our planet's wild places, its biodiversity. I have been witness to this decline. A Life on Our Planet is my witness statement, and my vision for the future. It is the story of how we came to make this, our greatest mistake – and how, if we act now, we can yet put it right. We have one final chance to create the perfect home for ourselves and restore the wonderful world we inherited.'

This anthology brings together original work from a diverse collection of Australian voices, from writers to scientists, journalists to historians, all expressing what 2020 meant to them. Contributors include Christos Tsiolkas, Melissa Lucashenko, Kim Scott, John Birmingham, Tim Flannery, Rebecca Giggs, George Megalogenis and more.

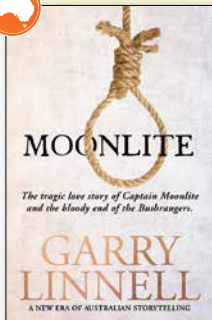

SONGLINES

Margo Neale & Lynne Kelly
Paperback RRP $19.99

Songlines are the means of storing and learning knowledges, ancient and modern. They are stories embodied in the land, sea and skies to be remembered and passed on through song, dance, art, ceremony and, most importantly, through attachment to Country. Margo Neale and Lynne Kelly show us how these integrated knowledges are encoded and transmitted to preserve vibrant and sustainable cultures. Songlines: The Power and Promise offers a remarkable way of learning, remembering and connecting to each other.

HISTORY & MILITARY

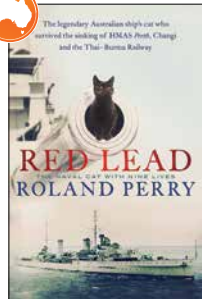

MOONLITE

Garry Linnell

Paperback RRP $34.99

A gay bushranger with a love of poetry and guns. A grotesque hangman with a passion for flowers and gardening. A broken young man desperate for love and respect. These men – two of them lovers – are about to bring the era of Australia's outlaws to a torrid and bloody climax. Moonlite is the true and epic story of George Scott, an Irish-born preacher who becomes, along with Ned Kelly, one of the nation's most notorious and celebrated criminals. Meticulously researched and drawing on previously unpublished material, Moonlite is a brilliant work of non-fiction that reads like a novel.
