

2014 VRC Open Day

The weather was perfect for the first VRC open day, held on the 23rd March . The 10am start had rodders rolling in with rodz and customs to enjoy the laid back atmosphere ,bringing pick nick baskets and chairs to relax and catch up with mates .

Our beer garden is set up to park cars and have shade for the people, grabbing a drink from the bar and eating hotdogs and hamburgers from the sausage sizzle, many people made themselves comfortable for the afternoon bring eskys and a friendly vibe making it a great family day

Plenty of Hotrods, customs and Classics

Shotdown from Sugartown provided the awesome rockabilly sounds, these guys are one of the top rockabilly acts in the county and are regulars at events held at Vintage Rod and Custom
