

Ristorante Julia Has Been Sold

January 25, 2018 -- After 35 years as a restaurateur and chef in beautiful downtown Oakville, starting with Cafe Galleria then Paradiso and 15 years at Ristorante Julia, I will be going to my second home Ritorno restaurant in North Oakville. Ritorno represents a return to my roots, delicious, unpretentious, homemade Italian food made from the heart. I also look forward to having more time to commit to HealthyFam, a not-for-profit that I established in 2009. HealthyFam brings to the table children, families and seniors by teaching kitchen literacy and empowering with the knowledge to prepare healthy food.

There are no words that can express my gratitude to the heartfelt support I have received from my guests and the amazing people I have worked with at Julia's. I'm certain the restaurant is going to be in good hands with the new owners. Julia's will be closed for a short period of time due to renovations starting January 29th, 2018.

I will continue to look forward to the privilege of feeding you for many more years to come at Ritorno and with HealthyFam.

Chef and Restaurateur,
Julia Hanna
