Reba Drotar Appointed as CCHS Board Member:

The CCHS Board of Trustees appoints Reba Drotar to fill the vacant board position. She will complete the term from the resignation of June Younger.

Historian

Reba Drotar

Former Council Woman Ward Three/Mayor Pro Tem

Reba, a native of Commerce City, has extensive knowledge of its history and is, therefore, the Historian for the Historical Society. Reba is a past business owner of the Blue Rose Restaurant and Catering Company. For 9 years Reba also served her community as a Councilwoman on the Commerce City, City Council. Reba also served on numerous boards and commissions, including the regional boards for: E470, Tri County Health, Rocky Mountain Arsenal RAB. Local board memberships include: General Improvement District, Cultural Council, and many others. Reba was "Rotarian of the Year" in 2005, the Commerce City Business and Professional Organization's "Business and Professional Citizen of the Year", the recipient of the "Commerce City Senior Citizens Triple C award", and the recipient of the Exempla Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation's "Good Samaritan of the Year Award" in 2008. Reba also received the leadership "Gold Certification" from the National League of Cities in Washington D.C. in 2009.

Reba has over 40 years of experience working with students of all ages, working with Adams County School District 14 as a volunteer and as an employee, which she is currently working as a Community Resource Specialist. Reba was the visionary of the School District 14 Resource Center, and she instrumental in petitioning Congress and the EPA for the release of the Arsenal land for the Prairie Gateway and the continued cleanup of the Rocky Mountain Arsenal. Reba was also the only carrier of the petition to keep the current name of the high school and the only petition carrier for the naming of the Hope Resource Center for School District 14.

Reba's number one love is her husband Gary, and her family. Reba has been devoted to the well-being of people of Commerce City and the preservation of their stories and history. She served on the first CCHS board and was instrumental in the development of the Commerce City Historical Society.

OUTDOOR LEISURE POOL – 60th and Monaco

FRONTERRA PARK – 10020 Joplin Street

All projects are due to be completed this summer and early fall.

The First Commerce City Historic Preservation Plan approved by City Council:

January 5, 2015 approved on the first reading
February 2, 2015 approved on the second reading.

The Preservation Plan is a policy document intended to serve as a guide for the sustainable preservation of Commerce City's historic assets. This plan will be used by the City Council to implement the community's vision for the safekeeping of the city's history. The plan is a guide as to how to go about surveying, honoring and celebrating the historic resources in the community. The plan is available for review on the City website (C3gov.com) or the Commerce City Historical website (cchistoric.com).

A Time in History

The Curve Tavern

Before television, before you could watch movies at home, before internet and Facebook, before Commerce City was Commerce City, adults from far and wide went north of Denver to one of the largest dance floors around, the Curve Tavern. They came to see their friends, listen to live entertainment and dance, dance, dance.

Named for the noticeable curve in Highway 2, the Curve Tavern was moved in 1942 to its current location, 6496 Highway 2. From that time to this, this great landmark has only had four owners.

The original owner, known as Burley, kept the patron's feet tapping until the early mid 50's when the Curve was sold to Eugene Patrino. Renamed Patrino's, a full service kitchen was installed and Italian dining was introduced.

In 1959, two ACHS graduates, Larry Fleck (1953) and Larry Bright (1950), bought the building and the old Curve Tavern became Larry's Lounge. Larry Fleck was, at the time, the youngest liquor license holder in the history of the state of Colorado. Within six months, he had bought out his partner, and became the sole owner of Larry's Lounge. Larry Fleck combined the two previous owner's ideas of live entertainment and good food.

By updating and improving the building, the menu, the music and other activities, Larry operated a successful, well-known business for many years. It is hard to find a person that lived in the Commerce City area during the 60's or 70's that wasn't either a patron or employee of Larry's Lounge.

In 1998, C.J. Sharpless (ACHS 1962), convinced Larry that with C.J.'s construction background and his wife's restaurant background (Pine Tree Café at 72nd & Newport), they could and would be the ones to revive the building and business. They changed the name to Curve Bar & operated under that name for several years while working on contacts to bring the "good music-good food" concept back alive.

Changing the name to Sharp's Roadhouse in 2003, the couple booked locally, nationally (and even internationally) acclaimed singers, bands, and entertainment. The kitchen was reopened for prime rib dinners, smoked brisket lunches, and great burgers. In 2004, Sharp's Roadhouse was awarded "Best Country Western Club in Denver" by Westword. In the intervening years, much like Larry Fleck, the Sharpless's have worked with several leaseholders, hoping to find someone who would feel the connection between the building, the business and the community. In 2014 C.J. and Teresa Sharpless once again opened the building as a restaurant Curve and closed the business in 2015.

Now, after cable/satellite TV, internet, cell phones, endless ways to communicate with friends and a changing community, this great historical building is looking for new owners with energy and a vision for the future. Our hope is that any new owner will feel that connection to Commerce City's past and future.

By Debra Bullock and Teresa Sharpless
