Meet the Artists

11 / 24 / 2019

Yu&I

Winners of the Beverly Hills National Auditions, YuEun Kim and Ines Thomé, met in 2013 when they both had just moved to the US; YuEun from Korea and Ines from Germany. Both studied at USC's Thornton School of Music, and each have won multiple solo competitions for their instruments. They are experienced chamber musicians who have performed around the world. Yu&I love to energize their audiences by breaking boundaries and relaxing them with their traditional choices.

1 / 26 / 2020

North Star Trio

The North Star Piano Trio, Kristen Autry, violin, Alexandra Roedder, cello, and Lynn Schugren, piano, was formed in 2017 in Nevada County. The trio debuted at the Bach's Lunch Series at St. Joseph's Cultural Center in Grass Valley, California. North Star focuses on works by new composers as well as works by women composers from all eras, while still enjoying presenting the standard repertoire for piano and string trio.

North Star refers to the historic mine where the pianist's 1911 Steinway lived for many years, a part of the Foote family's heritage and the history of Nevada County.

2 / 23 / 2020

Alaina Rose

Harpist Alaina Rose has performed with the Sacramento Youth Symphony, the San Francisco Civic Orchestra, the San Francisco's Mozart to Mendelssohn Orchestra, and the University of the Pacific Youth Orchestra. She was a featured performer at Lyon and Healy's Harptacular in Portland Oregon, and a featured soloist in the Summer Chamber Music Orchestra.

Abigail Leong

At the age of ten, Abigail made her debut at Carnegie Hall, performing the first movement of the Saint-Saens Cello Concerto. She has won many California and International String and Music Awards. Abigail plays with several string quartets and is one of the founding members of Quartet Cantare, whose performances benefit special needs students, families affected by California wildfires and the 2018 Hualien, Taiwan earthquake.

Jacqueline B. Hairston and Guest Artists

Jacqui Hairston, a 2019 Lincoln Center Master of the Spiritual honoree, resides in Sacramento. As an award-winning ASCAP composer-arranger, pianist, music educator, and vocal coach, she credits The Juilliard School, and Howard and Columbia Universities for her music foundation. Major artists and orchestras perform her music globally. A twice-invited guest conductor at Carnegie Hall, San Francisco CBS Channel 5 labeled her as Preserver of the Negro Spiritual. Internationally renowned soprano Kathleen Battle currently uses Hairston's spirituals in her annual Underground Railroad Concerts. A Healing Harvest is Jacqui's first "healing music" piano CD.

4 / 5 / 2020

Living Sounds

Established by Stephen Bingen, French horn, Living Sounds includes flute, clarinet, and oboe. These musicians have decades of combined worldwide experience, and perform a mixture of traditional woodwind quintet repertoire and light classics.

5 / 3 / 2020

The Jazz Thieves

The Jazz Thieves, through evocative lyrics, soulful improvisation, and wide-ranging originals revitalize jazz by reconnecting it to its roots. They "steal" Duke Ellington's melodicism, Tom Waits's grit, Bill Withers's soulful lyricism, and Kamasi Washington's modern edge, uniting all it with a jazz imagination.
