BE GREAT RECOGNITION DINNER
Our guest speaker was William McGuinness, the Club's 2008 Youth of the Year award winner. Mike Miozza and Jeanine O'Neil, Co-Chairpersons, presented the Community MVP Award.

The Champion of Youth Award recognizes the service and commitment of an individual who has had a tremendous impact on the Boys & Girls Club of Fall River and the youth served by our organization. The award is presented to those who, through words, actions, and financial support, show unwavering dedication to improving the lives of young people in our community.

COMMUNITY MVP AWARD
The Community MVP Award was presented to Yanka Camacho, this year's Youth of the Year.

AMAZON DAY

Amazon’s Fall River fulfillment center and Amazon Robotics in Boston surprised the Club with more than $10,000 worth of STEM learning items and grants. Under this year’s camp theme “Full STEAM Ahead,” Amazon associates also spent time working side-by-side with children in a cardboard boat-building contest with repurposed materials.

THANK YOU 99 RESTAURANT AND MA ALLIANCE

Thank you to Planet Fitness for the Paw Sox tickets! Fifty of our kids had a great time. Adam was the honorary scorecard kid and Noah was the honorary ball boy!

MASSACHUSETTS STATE YOUTH OF THE YEAR

This year our Club hosted the Massachusetts State Youth of the Year event at the Westport Hampton Inn. All nominees stayed at the Westport Hampton Inn and spent day 1 having fun at the club. The Massachusetts State Youth of the Year was awarded at the banquet the following day at Whites of Westport.

TORCH CLUB SUMMIT

Four members of our Torch Club were sent to participate at the Regional Summit in Greenwich, CT. There was a total of 25 clubs in attendance.

• Participate in engaging workshops which will provide them with the skills and tools to have an effective and successful Torch Club.
• Complete a community service project.
• Network with other Torch Clubs region to better understand and share ideas about current youth issues.
• Reward Torch Club members for their hard work all year by having two days packed with fun and the opportunity to make great friends.

BIKES FOR KIDS

Thank you Blount Fine Foods for the new bikes! It was a beautiful day for a ride!
