

SLC Commercial

Realty & Development

Jeffrey D. Chamberlin, CCIM, SIOR, has brokered commercial real estate on the Treasure/Research Coast since 1989. Chamberlin is the principal broker and owner of SLC Commercial, with offices in Stuart, Port St. Lucie, Vero Beach, and West Palm Beach, and 10 full time commercial agents. SLC Commercial is the region's largest commercial real estate brokerage. His firm's services include Sales and Leasing Brokerage, Management, Buyer/Tenant Representation, Development, and Consulting.

Chamberlin primary focuses are industrial properties, vacant land, and retail development sites. Chamberlin has brokered numerous large transactions, including a 400,000sf site selection and build to suit for Tamco in Tradition, a 100,000sf small bay industrial project in Treasure Coast Commerce Center, a 120,000sf industrial manufacturing building in Stuart, the 140 acre Venture Park site in Indiantown, a 38 acre retail power center site in St. Lucie West, a Publix shopping center site in Stuart, a Lowes site in Palm Bay, and a Home Depot site in Sebastian.

His education and banking background, along with his CCIM and SIOR designations, allow him to service elite corporate and national accounts. He is particularly adept in representing developers seeking to bring their concept to the market. He serves on the developer's team from the project's inception through completion. He provides critical input regarding siting, access, development hurdles, pricing and other areas affecting suitability.

Chamberlin is a community leader and recognized commercial real estate expert. He is a member of the Economic Development Council of St. Lucie County, and is a past President of the Business Development Board of Martin County and former Board Member of the Economic Council of Martin County. Chamberlin also served as the Florida Chapter President for the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors. Chamberlin and his wife Paula in Palm City.

Chamberlin can be reached in the Stuart office of SLC Commercial at (772) 220-4096.