

CAAN Academy of Nursing SURVIVOR'S RIGHTS & OPTIONS

CAAN Academy of Nursing is committed to providing our students, staff and faculty with a safe learning and work environment that provides survivors of sexual misconduct specific rights and options, including:

- ✓ The survivor's right to report or not report the alleged incident to CAAN Academy, law enforcement, or both. This includes information about the survivor's right to privacy and which reporting methods are confidential;
- ✓ The contact information for CAAN Academy's administrative team (i.e.; Program Director, Financial Director, and Administrator), local community sexual assault crisis centers, campus security, and local law enforcement;
- ✓ The survivor's right to request and receive assistance from campus authorities in notifying law enforcement;
- ✓ The survivor's ability to request interim protective measures and accommodations, which may include changes to academic, working, and transportation situations, obtaining and enforcing a campus-issued order of protection or no-contact order, if such protective measures and accommodations are reasonably available, and an order of protection or no-contact order in the county court;
- ✓ CAAN Academy's ability to provide assistance, upon the survivor's request, in accessing and navigating local health and mental health services, counseling, and advocacy services; and
- ✓ A summary of CAAN's complaint resolution procedures, under 110 ILCS 155/25 if the survivor reports a violation of the comprehensive policy.
