

First Savings & Loan

Personal Information Privacy Protection Policy

At First Savings & Loan, protecting the privacy and confidentiality of your personal information is important to all of us. We value your business and the trust you put in this association. In order to offer you the financial products and services you seek to obtain, we collect, maintain, and use information about you on a routine basis.

To help you better understand how your personal information is protected here at this institution, we are providing you with the following statement describing our practices and policies with respect to the privacy of customer information.

We do not disclose any non-public personal information about our current or former customers to any affiliate or nonaffiliated third party except as permitted by law.

We may collect information volunteered by you during the application process, gathered from your transactions and experiences with us and obtained from other authorized sources, such as credit bureaus. All information collected and stored by First Savings & Loan is used for specific business purposes, such as administering your account, complying with state and federal banking regulations, protecting against fraud, and developing a better understanding of your financial needs to provide you with improved product services.

When it comes to protecting your personal and financial information, we pledge to continue the tradition of trust you have come to expect from First Savings & Loan of Mebane.
