

Sol Levinson & Bros. Funeral Home Columbia Special Issue

Summer 2016

Life Happens: A free educational series on healthy living, caring for our loved ones and planning for the future

ARE YOU PREPARED FOR THE FUTURE?

It can be hard to discuss what happens when you or a family member becomes ill or passes away. But taking time to explore and make decisions about these issues now will make it easier on your loved ones. Facing these difficult issues can provide everyone with peace of mind for years to come.

LifeBridge Health, Jewish Community Services, the Jewish Federation of Howard County and Sol Levinson & Bros. want to make the hard conversations about aging and planning for the future easier for you. Join us for Life Happens, a free series of talks from experts who help navigate others through these topics.

Attendance is free and open to the community. Details about specific dates and speakers can be found on our Aftercare Page. To register for any or all of the Life Happens sessions, go to: www.lifebridgehealth.org/communityevents, or call 410-601-WELL (9355).

Plan Ahead

There are several important reasons to pre-plan a funeral. Planning ahead helps provide peace of mind for you and your family, and eases the financial burden of a funeral. It is also an acceptable way to spend down a person's assets.

Aftercare

Levinson's bereavement library, support groups, and educational events in Pikesville and Howard County ensure that the families we care for have support long after the funeral service ends.

In addition to the upcoming event listed above, you can find more details about our resources and several upcoming events in Columbia by going to our Aftercare Resources page.
