Advance Planning: So your family doesn't have to make the tough decisions

Planning ahead is something that we are taught to do for most of our lives. But planning for a funeral...it's hard to even think about.

If you've ever had to plan a funeral for someone else, you probably want to make sure that burden doesn't fall to your own children or other family members.

In this blog post, we have taken some time to answer a few common questions, from "What happens in an Advance Planning arrangement?" to "I'm not sick or old, why should I talk about this depressing subject now?"

Retirement Planning: Ask the Expert Luncheon

Looking for the basics on retirement planning? Join us for a luncheon to learn more!

Thursday, June 13th at Linwoods

Presenters:

Brian Rubin, CRPC® and Financial Advisor
Benjamin F. Edwards & Co.

&

Eliza Feller, Director of Advance Planning and Funeral Director
Sol Levinson & Bros., Inc.

Attendance by reservation only, and space is limited. Please see our blog for details and information on how to RSVP.

What is a Yahrzeit - and how do we observe it?

- Why does Judaism have specific rituals for observing the anniversary of someone's death?
- What are they?
- Are there other rituals beyond lighting a candle and saying kaddish?
- How do I find out someone's yahrzeit date?
