Jewish Perspectives on Planning for the Future: Leaving a Legacy

Tuesday, Sept. 10, 2019
6:30-8:30 p.m.
The Gordon Center for Performing Arts

The discussion will cover:

- Leaving a legacy: Articulating what is important to us and how we want to be remembered.
- Planning for financial, medical and end-of-life matters with loved ones
- Creating a comprehensive binder for your family members that will provide them with all the useful information they will need in the event of your death or other emergency.

Bereavement Support Groups in Columbia

In partnership with Sol Levinson & Bros., the Jewish Federation of Howard County's Community Social Worker, Michalah Hoffman, and Dr. Barry Frieman, Ed. D., LCSW-C offer several upcoming bereavement support groups.

Some of these groups are for those who have lost a family member or friend (excluding a spouse), and there is also a group that is specifically for those who have lost a spouse. The groups will focus on helping those who have experienced the loss of a loved one navigate their grief in a small group discussion environment.

Registration is required. Please see our blog post for dates, locations and registration information.
