ARTICLE 12. COMPLIANCE AND DEFAULT

12.1. VIOLATIONS: In the event of a violation (other than the nonpayment of an assessment), by an owner of any of the provisions of the Declaration, By Laws, Rules & Regulations, or the Act, the corporation, by direction of its Board, shall notify the owner of said breach by written notice, transmitted to the owner at his unit by certified mail. If such violation shall continue for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of mailing of the notice, the corporation shall have the right to treat such violation as an intentional, material, breach of the Declaration, By Laws, Rules & Regulations, or the Act, and the corporation shall then, at its option, have the following elections:

a. To commence an action in equity, to enforce performance on the part of the owner; or

b. To commence an action at law to recover its damages; or

c. To commence an action in equity for such equitable relief as may be necessary under the circumstances, including injunctive relief. Upon finding by a court that the owner was in violation of any of the provisions of the above mentioned documents, the owner shall reimburse the corporation for his reasonable attorney's fees, incurred in bringing such action. Failure on the part of the corporation to commence an action at law or in equity within sixty (60) days from the date of the receipt of a written request, signed by an owner, sent to the Board, shall authorize any owner to bring an action in equity or suit at law, relating to an alleged violation, in the manner provided for by the Act. Any violations which are deemed by the Board to be a hazard to public health or safety, may be corrected by the corporation immediately as an emergency matter. The cost thereof, shall be charged to the owner as a specific item, which shall, until paid in full, be a lien against his unit with the same force and effect as if the charge were made as part of the common expense.

12.2. VIOLATIONS (MONETARY): In the event an owner of a condominium parcel does not pay any sums, charges or assessments required to be paid to the corporation within thirty (30) days from the due date, the corporation, acting on its own behalf or through its Executive Board of Directors or manager, acting on behalf of the corporation, may foreclose the lien encumbering the condominium parcel created by non-payment of required monies in the same fashion as mortgage liens are foreclosed. The corporation shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver if it so requests. The corporation shall have the right to bid in the condominium parcel at a foreclosure sale and to acquire, hold, mortgage and convey the same. In lieu of foreclosing its lien, the corporation may, through its Board of Directors or manager acting on behalf of the corporation, or on its own behalf, bring suit to recover a money judgment for any sums, charges or assessments required to be paid to the corporation without waiving its lien and securing the same. In any action either to foreclose its lien or to recover a money judgment, brought by or on behalf of the corporation against a condominium parcel owner, the losing defendant shall pay the cost thereof, together with a reasonable attorney's fee.

If the corporation becomes the owner of a condominium parcel by reason of its foreclosure, it shall offer said unit for sale and at such time as the sale is consummated, it shall deduct from such proceeds, all sums of money due it for monthly assessments and charges, all costs incurred in the bringing of the foreclosure suit, including the reasonable attorney's fees, and any and all expenses incurred in the resale of the condominium parcel, which shall include, but not be limited to advertising expenses, real estate brokerage fees and expenses necessary for the repairing and refurnishing of the condominium parcel in question. All monies remaining after deducting the foregoing items of expenses, shall be returned to the former owner of the condominium parcel in question.

12. 3 NEGLIGENCE OR CARELESSNESS OF AN OWNER: Each owner shall be responsible for the expenses of any maintenance, repair, or replacement rendered necessary by his act, neglect or carelessness, or by the negligence of any member of his family, his or their guests, employees, agents, licensees, or lessees. Such liability shall be limited to the extent that such expense is not met by the proceeds of insurance carried by the corporation. Such liability shall include any increase in insurance rates occasioned by use, misuse, occupancy or abandonment of any unit or its appurtenances. Nothing contained herein, however, shall be construed as modifying any waiver by an insurance company as to its rights of subrogation. Cost of any maintenance, repair or replacement performed, pursuant to this section, shall be charged to said owner as a specific item, which shall, until paid in full, be a lien against his unit with the same force and effect as if the charges were a part of the common expenses.

12.4 COSTS AND ATTORNEY'S FEES: In any proceeding arising because of an alleged default by an owner, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceedings and such reasonable attorney's fees as may be determined by the court.

12.5 NO WAIVER OF RIGHTS: The failure of the corporation or an owner to enforce any right, provision, covenant or condition which may be granted by the condominium document, shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the corporation or owner to enforce such right, provision, covenant or condition in the future.

12.6 ELECTION OF REMEDIES: All rights, remedies and privileges granted to the corporation or an owner, pursuant to any terms, provisions, covenants or conditions of the condominium documents, shall be deemed to be cumulative, and the exercise of any one or more shall neither be deemed to constitute an election of remedies, nor shall it preclude that the party thus exercising the same or from exercising such other additional rights, remedies or privileges as may be granted by the condominium documents.

12.7 GENERALLY: Each owner of a condominium parcel, for himself, his heirs, successors and assigns, agrees to the foregoing provisions relating to default and abatement of nuisance, regardless of the harshness of the remedy utilized by the corporation and regardless of the availability of other adequate legal procedures. It is the intent of all owners of a condominium parcel to give to the corporation a method and procedure which will enable it at all times to operate on a businesslike basis; to collect those monies due and owing it from owners of condominium parcels, and to preserve each other's right to enjoy his unit, free from unreasonable restraint and nuisance.

ARTICLE 13. INDEMNIFICATION

13.1 Every director and officer of the corporation shall be indemnified by the corporation against all expenses and liabilities, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him in connection with any proceeding or settlement thereof in which he may become involved, by reason of his being or having been a director or officer of the corporation. This indemnification shall apply whether or not he is a director or officer at the time such liabilities or expenses are incurred, except in cases wherein the director or officer is adjudged guilty of willfull misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of his duties. In the event of a settlement, the indemnification established herein shall apply only when the Board approves such settlement and reimbursement. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of any other rights of indemnification to which such director or officer may be entitled.

ARTICLE 14. LIABILITIES SURVIVE TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

14.1 The termination of membership in the corporation shall not relieve or release any former owner or member from any liability or obligation incurred under or in any way connected with the condominium during the period of ownership and membership, or impair any rights or remedies which the corporation may have against such former owner and member, arising out of, or which is in any way connected with, such ownership and membership.

ARTICLE 15. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

15.1 Notwithstanding the duty of the corporation to maintain or repair parts of the property, the corporation shall not be liable for injury or damage caused by a latent condition in the property, nor for injury or damage caused by the elements, or other owners or persons.

ARTICLE 16. LIENS

16.1 PROTECTION OF PROPERTY: All liens against units, other than permitted mortgages, taxes or assessments, shall be satisfied or otherwise removed within thirty (30) days of the date the lien attaches. All taxes and special assessments shall be paid before becoming delinquent as provided in the condominium documents or By Laws, whichever is sooner.

16.2 NOTICE OF LIEN: An owner shall give notice to the corporation of every lien upon his unit, other than for permitted mortgages, taxes and special assessments, within five (5) days after the attachment of the said lien.

16.3 NOTICE OF SUIT: An owner shall give notice of the corporation of every suit or other proceeding which will or may effect title to his unit or any part of the property, such notices to be given within five (5) days after the owner receives notice thereof.

16.4 FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THIS ARTICLE: Failure to comply with this article concerning lands shall not effect the validity of any judicial sale.

16.5 PERMITTED MORTGAGE REGISTER: The corporation shall maintain a register of all permitted mortgages, and at the request of a mortgagee, the corporation shall forward copies of all notices for unpaid assessments or violations served upon an owner to said mortgagee. If a register is maintained, the corporation may make such charge as it deems appropriate against the applicable unit for supplying the information provided herein.

ARTICLE 17. SEAL

17.1 The seal of the corporation shall have inscribed thereon the name of the corporation, the year of its organization, and the words, "nonprofit". Said seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed, affixed, reproduces or otherwise.

ARTICLE 18. CONSTRUCTION

18.1 Whenever the masculine, singular form of the pronoun is used by these By Laws, it shall be construed to mean the masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, wherever the content so requires. Should any of the covenants herein imposed be void or become unenforceable in law or in equity, the remaining provisions of this instrument shall, nevertheless, be and remain in full force and effect.

ARTICLE 19. CONFLICT

19.1 If any irreconcilable conflict should exist, or hereafter arise, with respect to the interpretation of these By Laws or the Declaration of Condominium, the provisions of the Declaration shall prevail.

ARTICLE 20. CAPTIONS

20.1 The captions herein are inserted only as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way, define, limit or described the scope of these By Laws or the intent of any provisions hereof.
