N. Executive Board Maintenance and Repair. The Executive Board shall maintain, repair and replace all Common Elements, wherever situate, except that in the event such maintenance, repair or replacement was caused by negligence or misuse of a Unit Owner, or of any other occupant of a Unit, such expense shall be charged to such Unit Owner. Each Unit Owner shall maintain, repair, and replace, at his own expense, all portions of his Unit as are separate and private to it and him. Each Unit Owner shall be responsible for damage to any other Unit and/or to any Common Elements caused intentionally, negligently, or by failure to properly take care of his own Unit, whether or not the fault is his personally or is the fault of any other occupant or guest of his Unit.

O. No Obstruction. There shall be no obstruction of the Common Elements nor shall anything be stored in or on the Common Elements without the prior written consent of the Executive Board except as herein provided. The use and covering of the interior surfaces of windows, whether by draperies, shades or other items visible on the exterior of the building, shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the Executive Board.

P. Insurance Rates. Nothing shall be done or kept in any unit or in or on the Common Elements which will increase the rate of insurance on the property, or the contents thereof, for the residential use without the prior written consent of the Executive Board which consent may be conditioned upon the Unit Owner of such unit being required to bear the full amount of such increase. No Unit Owner shall permit anything to be done or kept in his unit or in or on the Common Elements which will violate any law, statute, ordinance or regulation of any governmental body or which will result in the cancellation of any insurance maintained by the Executive Board. No waste shall be committed in or on the Common Elements.

Q. Displays. No Unit Owner shall cause or permit anything to be hung or displayed on the outside of windows or placed on the outside walls of the building or on the property and no sign, awning, canopy, shutter, radio or television antenna or television or radio disk shall be affixed or placed upon the exterior walls or roof or any part thereof without the prior written consent of the Executive Board. No air-conditioning unit of whatever type other than those installed by the Developer as of the date of this Declaration may be installed without the express written approval of the Executive Board.

R. Miscellaneous Displays. No clothes, sheets, blankets, laundry or other articles of any kind shall be hung out or exposed on any part of the Common Elements.

S. Personal Property. No benches, chairs or other personal property shall be left on, nor shall any play thing, baby carriage, playpen, bicycle, wagon, toy or vehicle be left on any part of the Common Elements without the prior consent of and subject to the regulations of the Executive Board.

T. Electrical Wiring. No Unit Owner shall overload the electrical wiring of the buildings, or operate any machines, appliances, accessories or equipment in such manner as to cause, in the judgment of the Executive Board, an unreasonable disturbance to the other Unit Owners, nor shall any unit owner connect any machine, appliance, accessory or equipment to the heating system or plumbing system without the prior written consent of the executive Board.

Installation, removal, reconstruction or repair of any electrical lighting and power circuit or electrical outlet box or terminal device included in such outlet box, or any item of heating or air-conditioning equipment, any of which is located within the interior partition of any unit, may be undertaken by the Unit Owner of such unit only after application has been made to and written approval has been received from the Declarant or the Executive Board. Such approval shall be granted only if the work performed shall be of similar or superior quality to that present throughout the building or buildings, and shall be performed by qualified personnel. The cost of such installation, removal, reconstruction or repair whether undertaken by the Unit Owner or by the Executive Board, shall be borne by the Unit Owner of the unit benefitted thereby.

U. Additional Rules and Regulations. Reasonable rules and regulations, not in conflict with the provisions of this Declaration, concerning the use and enjoyment of the property, or the property which may be added to the project, may be promulgated from time to time by the Executive Board, subject to the right of the Association to change such rules and regulations. Copies of the then current Rules and Regulations and any amendments thereto shall be furnished to all Unit Owners by the Executive Board promptly after the adoption of such Rules and Regulations or any amendments thereto.

ARTICLE 6--COMMON EXPENSES

6.1. Condominium Expenses. The Declarant, for each Unit owned, hereby covenants with, and each other Unit Owner(s) by acceptance of a deed thereof, whether or not it shall be so expressed in such deed, is conclusively deemed to covenant and agree to pay to the Executive Board or its designee, as the representative of the RALEIGH PLACE CONDOMINIUM UNIT OWNERS' ASSOCIATION, such assessments and/or charges as may be levied by the Executive Board of the Condominium Unit Owners' Association to cover the reasonable share of Common Expenses incurred in maintaining, improving and managing RALEIGH PLACE, a Condominium. Such assessments and/or charges shall run with the land and shall be a continuing lien upon each Residential Unit until paid. Such assessments and/or charges may be enforced in any court of law or equity having jurisdiction thereof, and as provided for herein shall be subordinate to the lien of any first mortgage. The Declarant shall not be assessed costs for any unit under construction or constructed unless or until an occupancy permit has been issued for such unit. Declarant shall not be required to pay any monthly condo fee for unsold units after an occupancy permit has been obtained.

6.2. Special Expenses. Where in the judgment of the Executive Board, it is determined that an expense is peculiar to and of special benefit only to certain Residential Units, and is not foreseen to be repeated generally throughout the property, it shall make a special assessment on such account against only such Units as are so affected, and the same shall be subject to the foregoing provisions of the appropriate sections herein, like any other assessment. The provisions hereof shall be applicable under Article 8 below.

ARTICLE 7--ENCROACHMENTS

If any portion of a Residential Unit or Common Element encroaches upon another Unit, a valid easement for the encroachment and the maintenance of the same, so long as it stands, shall and does exist. In the event any building is partially or totally destroyed and then rebuilt, such encroachments may continue as a part of any restoration.

ARTICLE 8--EASEMENTS

8.1. Residential Unit Owners and Executive Board.

A. Each Unit Owner, as needed, shall have an easement in common with all other affected Unit Owners to have, use and repair, or to have repaired or replaced, as necessary, all pipes, wires, ducts, cable, conduits, chimneys, public utility lines and other elements in any way located in any Unit or forming any part of the Common Elements. In addition, each Unit shall be subject to, and shall have, such easements of support and shelter from, under, against and over such other Units, as may be necessary for the soundness and quiet enjoyment of each Unit, and as may be necessary for the soundness and needs of structural Common Elements.

B. The Executive Board shall have the right of reasonable access to each Unit to inspect the same, and to provide for removal of violations therefrom and generally to the extent set forth under the By-Laws, Rules, and Regulations, and to provide for service, maintenance, repair or replacement of Common Elements as necessary; and to service, maintain, repair, and replace such other equipment or elements as may be the responsibility of the Executive Board.

C. All repair work contemplated by this Article shall be performed solely through the Executive Board; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent the levying of a special assessment and/or charge on one or more Unit Owners for work performed in relation to the easements provided and referred to herein.

D. All such easements shall run with the land and inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Executive Board, each Unit Owner and each mortgagee, lessee, occupant, or other person having any interest in any Residential Unit or in the Common Elements.

E. Assessments, such as special assessments under Article 6, Section 2, above shall be made by the Executive Board after it determines that one or more Unit Owners are responsible for the problem or problems which necessitated the work performed.

ARTICLE 9--EXECUTIVE BOARD AND VOTING

9.1. RALEIGH PLACE CONDOMINIUM UNIT OWNERS' ASSOCIATION. A

Residential Unit Owners' Association, a non-profit corporation, shall be organized contemporaneously herewith. Membership in the Association shall consist exclusively of all the Residential Unit Owner(s).

9.2. Powers of the Residential Unit Owners' Association. The Association hereinabove described shall have all powers as set forth in Section 3302 of the Act.

9.3. Executive Board Members and Officers. The Association shall elect an Executive Board who may act in all instances on behalf of the Association. The names of the first members of the Executive Board are David Loesch--President and Treasurer, Lori Loesch--Secretary, and Charles Loesch--Vice President. The aforesaid first members shall serve until their successors have been elected by the Association pursuant to the By-Laws, Rules, and Regulations and after deeds have been recorded placing title to at least seventy-five (75%) percent of the Units in the names of owners other than the Declarant.

Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore set out, nothing herein shall in any way prevent, delay, hinder or impinge upon the right of the Declarant to construct additional Residential Units on the real estate as set out in the Exhibits attached hereto and/or as shown on the recorded plat plans or to file amendments to this Declaration until such time as the development has been turned over to the Association.

9.4. Voting. Each Unit Owner is automatically a member of the Association and each unit is entitled to one vote. Upon termination of his ownership of a Residential Unit, his membership thereupon automatically terminates and thereupon transfers and inures to the new Residential Unit Owner. Each Residential Unit Owner shall be entitled to the same number of votes (one (1) vote per unit) as are assigned to his Unit hereunder and under any amendments hereto. All meetings of the Unit Owners' Association shall take place in accordance with the By-Laws, Rules, and Regulations.

ARTICLE 10-SEPARATE MORTGAGES, TAXES, UTILITY CHARGES

10.1. Mortgages. Each Residential Unit Owner shall have the right to mortgage or encumber only his own designated Unit together with only his proportionate undivided share in the Common Elements, and he shall have no right, power, or authority to in any way encumber or affect the title to any other part of or interest in the property.

10.2. Taxes. It is understood that real estate taxes are to be separately taxed to each Residential Unit Owner for his Unit and his undivided percentage of ownership in the Common Elements.

10.3. Utilities. Each Residential Unit Owner shall pay for his own telephone, gas, electricity, water, sewer and/or other utilities which are separately metered or billed to each user by the appropriate utility company. Utilities not separately metered or billed may be treated as part of the Common Expenses or in the event the said utility services are supplied to some Units but less than all Units, then the Board may reasonably prorate these charges over the Units using such services, and require such Unit Owner to pay his prorata share of such charges, which shall become a charge or lien against the Unit, enforceable under Article 6, Section 2 above. The decision of the Executive Board to prorate, and its determination of prorated shares and charges, shall be final and binding on all Unit Owners.

ARTICLE 11--INSURANCE

11.1. Identification of the Units. The name by which the Property will be known is Raleigh Place, a Condominium. The name under which the business operation and affairs of the Property and the Unit Owners shall be managed on behalf of the Unit Owners both before and after the Declarant has surrendered control to the Unit Owners shall be the Raleigh Place Condominium Unit Owners' Association, a non-profit corporation.

11.2. Description of Property. The property herewith submitted to the condominium form of ownership under "the Act" is described on the Declaration Plan, and is also legally described as set forth on Exhibit "A" attached hereto. The boundaries of each Unit are as shown on the Plans recorded concurrently herewith. The unit identification numbers, the common areas, and the limited common areas of this condominium are as designated on the Plats and Plans recorded concurrently herewith, made a part hereof and Marked Exhibit "C".

11.3 Description of Units. Each Unit is intended for independent residential use and each of the residential units consists of the following portions of a building:

A. Enclosed Space. The volumes of cubicles of space enclosed by the unfinished interior surfaces of perimeter and interior walls, doors, windows and other such structural elements that ordinarily are regarded as enclosures of space;

B. Interior Walls. All interior dividing walls and partitions (including the space occupied by such walls or partitions accepting load-bearing, interior walls and partitions);

C. Fixtures and Furnishings. The decorated outer surface of the perimeter, floors and ceilings, plaster, wall-to-wall carpeting, fireplaces and flues, if any, tiles and other finishing materials affixed or installed as part of the physical structure of a unit, and all immediately visible fixtures, complete heating and mechanical systems and equipment installed for the sole and exclusive use of each Residential Unit, commencing at the point where the same extends from walls or floors into the interior space from the structural body of the building, or from the utility lines, pipes, or systems serving the unit. No pipes, wires, conduits or other public utility lines or installations constituting a part of the overall systems designed for the service of any particular unit or any of the structural members or portions of any kind, including fixtures and appliances within the unit which are not removable without jeopardizing the soundness, safety or usefulness of the remainder of the building shall be deemed to be a part of any unit.

11.4. Insurance. The Act requires that the Executive Board and the Association obtain and maintain insurance coverage for the Condominium as follows:

A. The Property will be insured for an amount equal to its full insurable replacement cost, with an agreed amount clause or hazard insurance against all risks of physical loss commonly insured against. Such insurance shall cover both the Units and Common Elements, but not improvements and betterments installed by Unit Owners. SUCH IMPROVEMENTS AND BETTERMENTS ARE NOT COVERED BY THIS INSURANCE AND EACH UNIT OWNER SHOULD MAINTAIN SEPARATE INSURANCE FOR SUCH PROPERTY.

The building coverage includes all items attached to the building including cabinets, wall-to-wall carpeting, moldings, etc., down to but excluding the paint. All proceeds of this policy will be payable to the Association. The Executive Board shall obtain an appraisal from a qualified appraiser for the purpose of determining the replacement cost of the building.

B. Comprehensive liability insurance insuring Unit Owners (in their capacity as Unit Owners), members of the Executive Board and any management agent against any liability to the public or to the Unit Owners, their tenants or invitees. The initial limits of liability shall be $1,000,000.00 for Bodily Injury, death or property damage in any single occurrence. EACH UNIT OWNER SHOULD MAINTAIN HIS OWN LIABILITY INSURANCE FOR HIS OWN UNIT. Certificates of insurance shall be submitted by each condominium unit owner to the Association or to the property manager.

The Association may carry such other policies of insurance it deems appropriate to protect the Association or Unit Owners.

In the event that the building is damaged or destroyed, such damage or destruction shall be repaired by the Association, using the available proceeds of insurance, unless eighty (80%) percent of the Unit Owners vote not to rebuild, as provided in Section 3312(g) of the Act.

ARTICLE 12--MAINTENANCE AND ALTERATIONS

Each Residential Unit Owner shall furnish and be responsible for, at his own expense, all of the maintenance, repairs and replacements within his own unit. No alterations of any of the Common Elements, or any additions or improvements thereto, shall be made by any Unit Owner without the prior written approval of the Executive Board.

ARTICLE 13--UNITS SUBJECT TO DECLARATION

13.1 By-Laws, Rules, and Regulations. All present and future Residential Unit Owners, tenants, mortgagees, and occupants of Units shall be subject to and shall comply with the provisions of this Declaration, with those of the By-Laws, Rules, and Regulations, and with the duly promulgated rules and regulations adopted by the Executive Board and with all amendments of the same. Acceptance of a deed of conveyance or the acceptance of inheritance or the entering into of a lease, or the entering into occupancy of a unit, shall constitute an agreement to be so bound, and that the aforementioned instruments are accepted and ratified by each such Unit Owner, tenant, occupant, or mortgagee; and all such provisions of the aforementioned instruments shall be deemed and taken to be covenants running with the land and shall bind every person at any time having any interest or estate in such unit as though all such provisions were set forth in full, in each and every deed, or inheritance, or lease, or any other relevant document.

ARTICLE 14--LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

14.1. Liability of Members of the Executive Board and Officers. The members of the Executive Board and its officers and any assistant officers:

A. Shall not be liable to the Residential Unit Owners as a result of their activities as such for any mistake of judgment, negligence or otherwise, except for their own willful misconduct or gross negligence;

D. Shall have no personal liability arising out of the use, misuse or condition of the property, or which might in any other way be assessed against or imputed to them as a result or by virtue of their capacity as such.

14.2. Indemnification by Residential Unit Owners. The Unit Owners shall indemnify and hold harmless any person, his heirs and personal representatives, from and against any and all personal liability, and all expenses, including counsel fees, incurred or imposed, or arising out of or in settlement of any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, instituted by any one or more unit owners or any other persons or entities, to which he shall be threatened to be made a party by reason of the fact that he is or was a member of the Executive Board or an officer or assistant officer, other than to the extent, if any, that such liability or expense shall be attributable to his willful misconduct or gross negligence, PROVIDED, in the case of any settlement that the Executive Board shall have approved the settlement, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Such right of indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such person may be entitled as a matter of law or agreement or vote of Unit Owners or of the Executive Board or otherwise. The indemnification by the Unit Owners set forth in this Section 2 of Article 14 shall be paid by the Executive Board on behalf of the Unit Owners and shall constitute a Common Expense and shall be assessed and collectible as such.

14.3. Liabilities of Individual Residential Unit Owners. The Residential Unit Owners and any lessees or sublessees of a Residential Unit shall be jointly and severally liable for liabilities arising out of their own conduct arising out of ownership, occupancy, use, misuse or condition (except when the result of a condition affecting all or other parts of the property) of that Unit.

14.4. Costs of Suit in Actions Brought by One or More Residential Unit Owners on Behalf of All Residential Unit Owners. If any action is brought by one or more, but less than all Residential Unit Owners, on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners, and recovery is had, the Plaintiff's expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, shall be a Common Expense, provided that if such action is brought against all Unit Owners or otherwise against all other Unit Owners or against the Executive Board, its officers, assistant officers, employees or agents in their capacities as such, with the result that the ultimate liability asserted would, if proved, be borne by all the Residential Unit Owners, the Plaintiff's expenses, including counsel fees, shall not be charged to or borne by the other Unit Owners, as a Common Expense or otherwise.

14.5. Notice of Suit and Opportunity to Defend. Complaints brought against all Unit Owners or the Executive Board, or the officers, assistant officers, employees or agents thereof, in their respective capacities as such, or the property as a whole, shall be directed to the Executive Board, which shall promptly give written notice thereof to the Residential Unit Owners and the holders of any Permitted Mortgages and shall be defended by the Executive Board, and the Unit Owners and such holders shall have no right to participate other than through the Executive Board in such defense. Complaints against one or more, but less than all the Unit Owners or Residential Units alleging liabilities covered by Section 3 of Article 14 hereof, shall be directed to such Unit Owners, who shall promptly give written notice thereof to the Executive Board and to the holders of any Permitted Mortgages affecting such units and shall be defended by such owners.

ARTICLE 15--AMENDMENT

This Declaration may be amended, subject to the restrictions of the Act, by the vote of the Residential Unit Owners and the mortgagees of 75% of the common elements after control of the same has been delivered to the Association by the Declarant. In the event that real estate taxes for any year are not separately assessed against each Unit, but rather are assessed against the property as a whole, then each Residential Unit Owner shall pay his proportionate share thereof in accordance with his respective percentage interest in the Common Elements at that time, and in said event, such taxes shall be a common expense. The Executive Board shall have the authority to advance Association funds in payment of all or a portion of such taxes pending receipt from the respective owners of their proportionate share thereof.
