Installation, removal reconstruction or repair of any electrical lighting and power circuit or electrical outlet box or terminal device included in such outlet box, or any item of heating or air-conditioning equipment, any of which is located within the interior partition of any unit, may be undertaken by the Unit Owner of such unit only after application has been made to and written approval has been received from the Declarant or the Executive Board. The provisions hereof shall be applicable under Article VII below.

ARTICLE VI

(c) All repair work contemplated by the Article shall be performed solely through the Executive Board; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent the levying of a special assessment and/or charge on one or more Unit Owners for work performed in relation to the easements provided and referred to herein. (d) All such easements shall run with the land and inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Executive Board, each Unit Owner and each mortgagee, lessee, occupant, or other person having any interest in any Residential Unit or in the Common Elements. Not more than sixty (60) days after the conveyance of twenty-five (25%) percent of the Residential Units to Residential Unit Owners, other than the Declarant, not less than twenty-five (25%) percent of the members of the Executive Board shall be elected by any Unit Owners other than the Declarant.

Not later than sixty (60) days after the conveyance of fifty (50%) percent of the Residential Units to Residential Unit Owners, other than the Declarant, not less than thirty-three and one third (33 1/3%) percent of the members of the Executive Board shall be elected by Residential Unit Owners other than the Declarant.

Residential Unit Owners shall not be prohibited from carrying insurance for their own benefit provided that all such policies shall contain waivers of subrogation against all other parties insured by the comprehensive general liability insurance of Paragraph 4, and further provided that the liability of the carriers issuing the insurance obtained by the Executive board shall not be affected or diminished by reason of any such additional insurance coverage by any Unit Owner. In no event, however, shall the insurance coverage obtained and maintained by the Executive Board hereunder be brought into contribution with insurance purchased by individual Unit Owners of their mortgagees.

Section 8. Filing of Individual Policies. Each Residential Unit Owner shall file any individual policies of insurance (excluding policies restricted to personal property) with the Executive Board within thirty (30) days after purchase thereof. The Executive Board shall maintain the file thereof.

The duty of the Trustee shall be to receive such proceeds as are paid and to hold the same in trust for the purposes elsewhere stated herein, and for the benefit of the Executive Board, the Residential Unit Owners and their mortgagees in the following shares:

(a) Common Elements. Proceeds on account of damage to Common Elements as an undivided share for each Residential Unit Owner, such share being the same as the percentage of undivided interest of such Residential Unit Owner as set forth in the Declaration.

(c) Mortgagees. In the event a mortgagee endorsement has been issued, with respect to a particular unit, the share of the Residential Unit Owners shall be held in trust for the mortgagee and the Unit Owner as their interest may appear; provided, however, that no mortgagee shall have the right to determine or participate in the determination as to whether or not any damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired.

Each Residential Unit Owner shall personally assume the additional expenses of any improvements made which would restore the unit to a condition superior to that which existed immediately prior to the damage.

(c) Residential Unit Owners' Liability. In the event that the proceeds of insurance are not sufficient to repair or reconstruct the damaged portions of the property, then the repair or reconstruction shall be accomplished by the Association as a common expense, in proportion to the undivided percentage interests in the common elements. Residential Unit Owners may apply the proceeds from any individual insurance policies that may have been obtained to the share of such common expense as may be assessed against them.

(d) No Reconstruction or Repair. The damage shall not be repaired or reconstructed if the condominium is terminated or if eighty (80%) percent of the Unit Owners vote not to rebuild. If the Residential Unit Owners so vote not to rebuild, the insurance proceeds shall be distributed to all the Unit Owners and lien holders, as their interests may appear, in proportion to their common elements interests. If the condominium is terminated, then the proceeds shall be distributed as set forth in the Uniform Condominium Act.

ARTICLE XI

Maintenance and Alterations

Section 1. Each Residential Unit Owner shall furnish and be responsible for, at his own expense, all of the maintenance, repairs and replacements within his own units. to the extent, if any, that such liability or expense shall be attributable to his willful misconduct or gross negligence, PROVIDED, in the case of any settlement that the Executive Board shall have approved the settlement, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Such right of indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such person may be entitled as a matter of law or agreement or vote of Unit Owners or of the Executive Board or otherwise. The indemnification by the Unit Owners set forth in this Section 2 of Article XIII shall be paid by the Executive Board on behalf of the Unit Owners and shall constitute a Common Expense and shall be assessed and collectible as such.

Complaints against one or more, but less than all the Unit Owners or Residential Units alleging liabilities covered by Section 3 of this Article XIII, shall be directed to such Unit Owners, who shall promptly give written notice thereof to the Executive board and to the holders of any Permitted Mortgages effecting such units and shall be defended by such owners.

ARTICLE XIV

This Declaration may be amended, subject to the restrictions of the Act, by the vote of the Residential Unit Owners and the mortgagees of 75% of the common interests after control of the same has been delivered to the Association by the Declarant; until that time, the Declaration retains and reserves specifically the right to amend these declarations and the plat plans, including the right to convert or add additional real estate to this condominium project. No amendment shall be effective until properly recorded.

In the event that real estate taxes for any year are not separately assessed against each Unit, but rather are assessed against the property as a whole, then each Residential Unit Owner shall pay his proportionate share thereof in accordance with his respective percentage interest in the Common Elements at that time, and in said event, such taxes shall be a common expense. The Executive Board shall have the authority to advance Association funds in payment of all or a portion of such taxes pending receipt from the respective owners of their proportionate share thereof.

ARTICLE XVII

Option to Expand the Condominium

Section 1. Reservation. This project shall be built in phases. The Declarant hereby explicitly reserves an option until the seventh anniversary of the recording of this Declaration and any amendments hereto to add, in phases, additional units to the real estate from time to time in compliance with Section 321l of the Act, without the consent of any unit owners or mortgagee. The right to add additional units in phases for a total of twenty-four (24) units, as set forth herein, may be terminated prior to such anniversary only upon the filing by the Declarant of an amendment to this Declaration. The Declarant expressly reserves the right to add additional units in phases to any and all portions of the real estate already described by converting the real estate to units, at different times, at any time, in any order, without limitation and without any requirement that any other real estate shall be added, converted or withdrawn; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that any converted real estate shall not exceed any of the areas described in the Exhibits attached hereto. There shall be no limitations on the option to expand. The option to add additional units or not to add additional units is completely at Declarant's discretion until such time as he has turned seventy-five (75%) percent of the ownership of the units over to the Unit Owners Association.

Section 2. Assurances. Declarant makes no assurances as to location of buildings on convertible real estate or the location of any units on the real estate as described on the Exhibits attached hereto. At such time as the condominium is expanded and additional units are constructed, the maximum number of units per acre on the real estate as described in the Exhibits or the number of units converted on the real estate already described in the Exhibits as an aggregate will be no more than twenty-four (24). The maximum percentage in the aggregate of land and buildings and of common area that may be created by construction or by the additional of additional units to the real estate already described, i.e., converted, if added, shall not be less than 1/24 when all 24 units are constructed. Any buildings to be constructed in the phases on the real estate as described in the exhibits and the additional units constructed during the phases of construction thereon will be compatible in quality, materials and style with the buildings initially constructed on the land. Declarant expressly reserves the right to create Limited Common Elements on the real estate and to designate Common Elements which may be subsequently assigned as Limited Common Elements. Declarant makes no assurances as to type, size or maximum number of such Common Elements or Limited Common Elements. The allocation of percentage interest in the real estate shall be computed in accordance with the number of units constructed if and when constructed. All restrictions in this Declaration affecting the use, occupancy and alienation of Residential Units will apply to units created in the real estate as described on the exhibits. In the event Declarant does add additional units to the real estate as described on the exhibits, Declarant shall nevertheless have the right to construct all or any portion of any building or buildings on the real estate described in the exhibits attached hereto and operate the same without restriction, except as set forth herein.

Section 3. Declarant Easement for Development of Real Estate. The Declarant reserves an easement on, over and under those portions of the Common Elements not located in a building which contains units, for all purposes relating to the construction, development, leasing and/or sale of improvements on real estate to which units will be constructed in the phases of construction. This easement shall include, without limitation, the right of vehicular and pedestrian ingress and egress, the right to park motor vehicles and to engage in construction and marketing activities of any nature whatsoever, including the movement and storage of building materials and equipment, the conduct of sales, leasing and management activities, the maintenance of models and offices and the erection and maintenance of directional and promotional signs.

ARTICLE XVIII

Convertible Real Estate

Section 1. Reservation. The Declarant hereby explicitly reserves an option until the seventh anniversary of the recording of this Declaration and any amendments to convert all or any portion of the convertible real estate to units, Common Elements and Limited Common Elements or any combination thereof from time to time in compliance with Section 321l of the Act without the consent of any Unit Owner or mortgagee. The option to convert may be terminated prior to such anniversary only upon the filing of an amendment to this Declaration by the Declarant. The Declarant expressly reserves the right to convert any and all portions of the convertible real estate at any time, at different times, in any order, without limitation and without any requirement that any other real estate shall be added, converted, or withdrawn; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the convertible real estate shall not exceed any of the areas described in the Exhibits attached hereto. There are no other limitations on the option to convert the convertible real estate from the condominium.

Section 2. Assurances. If the convertible real estate is converted, the buildings on the convertible real estate will be located approximately as shown on the plats attached hereto. At such time as the convertible real estate is completely converted, the maximum number of units which may be converted on the real estate as a whole in the development will be twenty-four (24) in the aggregate. Any buildings to be constructed within the convertible real estate and units therein will be compatible in quality, materials and style with the buildings on other portions of the property.

Declarant may construct or convert certain additional structures and other amenities serving the condominium project. Any buildings within the convertible real estate will be substantially shown on the exhibits attached hereto and the recorded plats. The Declarant expressly reserves the right to create Limited Common Elements within the convertible real estate and to designate Common Elements therein which may be subsequently assigned as Limited Common Elements. The type of such elements may be attics, roofs, patios, terraces, electrical and mechanical rooms and systems, including heating and cooling apparatus, parking, commercial and recreational facilities, and all other elements which can appropriately be designated as Common Elements or Limited Common Elements or any combination thereof. The size of such elements shall be limited approximately to the same size as the existing improvements and designated areas except for any additional patios or terraces which shall not exceed the normal size for such appurtenances; the electrical and mechanical rooms and systems, including heating and cooling apparatus, shall not exceed the normal size for the same necessary to serve the property; and the parking, commercial and recreational facilities, if constructed, will not exceed the size necessary to serve the property. All restrictions in this Declaration affecting use, occupancy and alienation of units will apply to units created in the Convertible Real Estate. The reallocation of percentage interest in the Convertible Real Estate and the property may be recomputed from time to time.
