

Investigate • Identify • Strategise • Integrate • Maintain

Who we are

TLG Engineering is an Australian based company that delivers management and operational level engineering support. As a specialist service group, we work with businesses to achieve improvements in productivity, efficiencies and company profitability.

TLG draws on diversity, front-line experience and business integrity to deliver results locally and abroad. Our team have proven reputations and are ready to meet your business requirements.

Project Management

Capital Works Program, Green & Brown field infrastructure and equipment and IT projects

Asset Management

Reliability and integrity engineering, ERP compliance and maintenance interventions

Our Services

Studies

Mine closure, tailings facilities, demolition, services relocation and asset suitability

Operational Readiness

Assets, Processes and Programs

Operational Support

Shutdown interventions, business and process improvements and coaching

Engineering consultants specialising in management and operational level engineering support – Dedicated. Dynamic. Distinctive.