

LINCOLN HERITAGE TRAIL

LOOKING FOR LINCOLN WAYSIDE EXHIBITS

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1 Political Campaigning in 1858                    | 10 Tri-state Business Center                     |
| 2 Lincoln-Douglas Debate                           | 11 Frontier Illinois                             |
| 3 Lincoln's 1854 VisitLincoln's Honored Friend | 12 His Friends Rest HereA Victorian Cemetery |
| 4 A Quincy "Copperhead"                            | 13 Political Allies                              |
| 5 Search for Equality                              | 14 Quincy's Early Environment                    |
| 6 Lincoln's Friend Johnston                        | 15 Lincoln Recuperates                           |
| 7 Quincy's Judge DouglasDouglas' Disciple      | 16 Warm, Sincere Friendship                      |
| 8 Lincoln's QuincyDowntown Quincy in 1858      | 17 Lincoln's Confidante                          |
| 9 Steamboats and Railroads                         | 18 Lincoln CorrespondentLincoln Promoter     |

LINCOLN-RELATED ATTRACTIONS

- A L-D Debate Interpretive Center
- B Lincoln-Douglas Debate Site
- C Dr. Richard Eells Home
- D Stephen Douglas ISHS Marker
- E History Museum
- F John Wood Statue
- G Adams County Civil War Monument
- H Governor John Wood Mansion
- I Lincoln Gallery (in Visitors Center)
- J All Wars Museum
- K Lincoln Era Log Cabin Village

B Lincoln-Douglas Debate Site

