

Week of March 28

Luke Chapter 20 Reflection Questions: In this chapter, Jesus teaches about the resurrection. How does your belief in the future resurrection give your comfort and peace, and how does your faith in after life effect your life and life's decisions today?

Luke Chapter 21 Reflection Questions: What does the contribution of the poor widow teach you about charity? What do you think about when Jesus tells you to be “on guard” and “watchful” concerning the coming of the Son of Man?

Luke Chapter 22 Reflection Questions: In this chapter the Passion of Jesus begins. Picture yourself at the Last Supper. How do you feel when Jesus says, “this is my body...this is my blood, which is given for you?” Do you find it ironic that even at the last supper, the disciples argue about who is the greatest? What can the Church learn from that?

Luke Chapter 23 Reflection Questions: Place yourself at the scene of the crucifixion with Jesus. Jesus looks down at you. How do you feel? What does the exchange between Jesus and the criminal on the cross tell you about the love and mercy of Jesus?

Luke Chapter 24 Reflection Questions: How can you proclaim the message of Resurrection to family and friends? How is the encounter at Emmaus similar to our Mass? What moved your heart as you read and prayed with the Gospel of Luke?

We Begin the Gospel of John

John Chapter 1 Reflection Questions: The Prologue of John's Gospel, 1:1-18, is one of the most powerful and deep passages of the Bible. As you read these powerful words, what are your thoughts about God and His role in your life? Jesus calls the first two disciples how is He calling you to follow Him?

John Chapter 2 Reflection Questions: At the “Wedding Feast in Cana”, Mary tells the servants at the wedding feast to “Do whatever He tells you.” How has Mary led you to Jesus? Jesus cleanses the temple, what can you clean out of your own life that keeps you from truly experiencing God?
