WELCOME TO HOUSE ARREST!

To say this year has been challenging is, as many of you surely know firsthand, a vast understatement. Team CrimeCon was crushed to cancel our live CC20 Orlando event as we watched the pandemic disrupt over a year of planning, and we know many of you were as well. Your encouragement and support have kept our spirits up as we pivoted to this new world of virtual events.

As difficult as this year has been for us, we know it's been much worse for many of you. House Arrest is our "lemons into lemonade" moment and we are tremendously grateful to our speakers, guests, and podcasters that have met this challenge with positivity and enthusiasm.

To those of you who have lost loved ones or faced hardship, please know that our hearts are with you. We hope this event serves as a much-needed day of distraction from an otherwise chaotic year.

With Kelly in Texas, Steve Spingola in Wisconsin and Abbey Abbondandolo in Idaho, this trio will be teaming up virtually for the first time in months to go behind the tape and talk about the cases they will never forget, what drives them to uncover the truth and share their best stories from the road. Since visiting CrimeCon last year, the Cold Justice team, working alongside local law enforcement, has helped generate more arrests, bringing their total tally up to 48 arrests and 21 convictions since the show launched in 2013. Steve Spingola & Abbey Abbondandolo will conduct a live Q&A with fans after the session. The panel will be moderated by Entertainment Weekly's Senior TV Editor Gerrad Hall.

BILLY JENSEN & DR. CASEY JORDAN

True-crime investigative journalist Billy Jensen teams up with criminologist and behavioral analyst Dr. Casey Jordan to deep-dive into the murder of University of North Carolina student Faith Hedgepeth in 2012. After Jensen provides a deep-dive into the case details, Dr. Jordan will work through the suspect profile, using the evidence to provide key insights into the person or persons responsible. Breaking down the crime scene, the victim's movements, and the evidence that has been released over the ensuing years, Dr. Jordan will demonstrate how a profile is created and what it can and cannot tell us about a suspect. After the profile is built a live Q&A will follow with Jensen and Dr. Jordan.

ABUSE OF POWER: A DEEP DIVE INTO LAW ENFORCEMENT ETHICS

DAVID RUDOLF & SONYA PFEIFFER with SHAUN HITTLE & ROSS DINERSTEIN

STAGE 1
3:50p ET

Abuse of Power is a podcast from producer Campfire that identifies and discusses the various ways in which law enforcement and the U.S. criminal justice system have victimized the very people they are supposed to protect: us. In the new show, David Rudolf, known globally for his role as defense attorney for Michael Peterson in the Netflix docuseries The Staircase, teams up with his wife, award-winning journalist and criminal defense attorney Sonya Pfeiffer, to scrutinize this abuse by spotlighting cases in which misconduct within the justice system resulted in the imprisonment of innocent people. Together, David and Sonya will join private investigator Shaun Hittle and producer and Campfire CEO Ross Dinerstein to look more closely at the facts behind one of their most heartbreaking episodes.

STAGE 2

"I CAN'T BREATHE"
DR. MICHAEL BADEN

Dr. Michael Baden, famed forensic pathologist and star of the HBO program Autopsy, takes a science-focused look at the headline-grabbing plea "I can't breathe." Dr. Baden will break down exactly what happens when a victim is put in a chokehold with pressure applied to their back. Using the 2014 death of NYC resident Eric Garner as a reference case, session attendees will learn how quickly death can occur and why this police tactic—and the often-accompanying diagnosis of excited delirium—is so controversial. This will be a scientific deep-dive that is sure to leave attendees far more educated on this key issue. Dr. Baden will hold a live Q&A following his presentation.

WHO KILLED BABY LINDBERGH? LINDA KENNEY BADEN

STAGE 1
4:35p ET

Charles Lindbergh was an American hero, but noted criminal defense attorney Linda Kenney Baden (whose high profile clients have included Jayson Williams, Phil Spector, Aaron Hernandez, and Casey Anthony), says he was also a raging anti-Semite who desired the creation of the 'perfect human race.' Did that have anything to do with the kidnapping and death of his 20-month old son? Immigrant Bruno Richard Hauptmann was tried and convicted for the murder of Baby Lindbergh, but did he get the fair defense and trial he deserved? In this session you'll get a unique perspective on the O.G. true crime case, including a sneak peek into the case forensics, hidden truths, buried secrets, and the trial strategy of representing Hauptmann in a modern-day courtroom. This is a must see for all true crime history buffs!

STAGE 2

CHRIS WATTS: BREAKING DOWN THE LIES
MARK MCCLISH

WARNING: Your kids do not want you to attend this session. One session with deception detection expert Mark McClish and not only will you know when your kids are fibbing, you'll know how to spot liars everywhere. Mark McClish is a retired Supervisory Deputy United States Marshal. He spent nine years teaching interviewing techniques at Marshals Service Training Academy. During this time, he developed the Statement Analysis® techniques to detect deception in a verbal and written statements. During his session, he'll take a look at one of the - if we do say so ourselves - worst liars in recent true crime memory. You'll learn how to spot the verbal "tells" that indicate deception.

DATELINE presents: LEAN IN & LISTEN UP
KEITH MORRISON & JOSH MANKIEWICZ

STAGE 1
6:00p ET

We're excited to hear that The Man With the Golden Voice is working on a NEW upcoming true crime podcast -- and he's joining us at CrimeCon: House Arrest to give us the scoop! Better yet, Keith will be joined by longtime friend and fellow Dateline correspondent Josh Mankiewicz (that's right, a DOUBLE SHOT of Mayor Mank!) to dish on the new podcast and engage in plenty of that Mank/Morrison witty banter we've all come to know and love. So, what's the upcoming podcast? We're going to wait and let Keith tell you, because nobody can do it better or more baritone than The Man himself. But if you're a fan of Keith's first podcast serial The Thing About Pam, it's safe to say that you can not miss this session!

STAGE 2

HOW WE DIE: DEBUNKING THE MYTHS ABOUT STRANGULATION DEATHS
DR. BILL SMOCK

True or False: when someone dies by strangulation, there will always be visible evidence. Think you know the answer? You may be surprised! Dr. Bill Smock is the nation's only police surgeon and leading expert on both fatal and non-fatal strangulation, and his CrimeCon: House Arrest session is a doozy for those who love to learn about gory topics without seeing a lot of gory imagery (maybe some, just not a lot). Dr. Smock will set straight many myths and misconceptions about strangulation; the physiological processes that occur when pressure is applied to the neck; and how death can occur from strangulation days, weeks, or even months after strangulation trauma.

THE CASE THAT HAUNTS ME
PAUL HOLES

STAGE 1
6:40p ET

You know him. You love him. And now he's back with a case that's haunted him for years. In a CrimeCon: House Arrest exclusive, Paul Holes takes you into the mysterious murder of Emmon Bodfish, a reclusive business owner and investment banker formerly known as Margaret Bodfish. Did Bodfish die at the hands of a transphobic killer? In a murder-suicide pact with his son? Could his death be related to his Druid religion practices? During House Arrest, Paul will reveal crime scene photos, analysis of blood splatter patterns, and diary excerpts from Bodfish himself before a LIVE Q&A with House Arrest viewers. This is a session you won't want to miss from one of the best true crime storytellers on the scene!

BAD MEDICINE: PRESCRIPTION FOR CRIME
DAN "THE PHARMACIST" SCHNEIDER & CHARLOTTE BISMUTH

Dan Schneider and Charlotte Bismuth are two people from different walks of life who were both pulled into America's raging opioid epidemic from two different perspectives: pharmacist Schneider when his son Danny was shot during an altercation with a drug dealer and prosecutor Bismuth as she worked to bring down one of the largest "pill pushers" in the industry. True crime enthusiasts watched Dan's tragic story play out on Netflix's hit docuseries The Pharmacist -- and he won over their hearts along the way. Bismuth, a former member of New York City's Office of the Special Narcotics Prosecutor helped to convict Doctor Stan Li of manslaughter in 2014 after an investigation showed he was grossly overprescribing opioids including the deadly fentanyl. In this session, Charlotte and Dan will talk about how their different perspectives -- but shared experiences -- brought them together and how they'll work to continue bringing attention to the "invisible pain" of those struggling with the opioid epidemic. Stick around after the session for a live Q&A!
