Smith's Funeral Homes and Stonehouse-Whitcomb Funeral Home

Celebrating 78 years of Service and Recognizing Student Excellence

In 1877, Edward Williamson owned an undertaking and cabinet-making firm in Burlington which was passed on to his son Edgar.

By 1938, it had been purchased by Wilbert Smith who was assisted by his sister Jeanette - both licensed Funeral Directors.

The funeral home was relocated to its present site on Brant Street in 1942, and was run by

Wilbert J. Smith
Founder

Wilbert, his wife, Kay and eventually his brother Stanley. As the business grew, their sons Don and Doug became involved, and Don continues to be active today.

The family opened a second location on Guelph Line in 1996, and subsequently purchased Grimsby's Stonehouse-Whitcomb Funeral Home in 2002, and the Stoney Creek Funeral Home in 2008.

Today the company is also co-owner of Evergreen Crematorium and Canadian Cremation Services.

Smith's has received the Pursuit of Excellence Recognition, the Mayor's

Community Service Award in 2013 and 1997 and was named Burlington's Company of the Year in 2000.

We are proud to present an award annually to a graduating student at each high school in Burlington, Grimsby and Stoney Creek. It is our way of recognizing and celebrating commitment to excellence by the youth in our communities.

Preserving this legacy and searching for ways to enhance our service to others will always be our focus.
