Did You Know

- ✚ When you carry your Bible Satan has a headache; When you open it he collapses;
- ✚ When he sees you reading it, he loses his strength and when you stand on the Word of God, Satan can't hurt you.
- ✚ Some people always throw stones in your path. What matters is what you make with them— a wall or a bridge! Remember you are the architect of your life.

“As followers of Christ we should make our words such as to be a help and an encouragement to one another in the Christian life. Far more than we do, we need to speak of the precious chapters in our experience. We should speak of the precious chapters in our experience. We should speak of the mercy and loving-kindness of God, of the match-less depths of the Saviour's love. Our words should be words of praise and thanksgiving. If the mind and heart are full of the love of God, this will be revealed in the conversation.

...When Christ is thus revealed in our speech, it will have power in winning souls to Him.”

Ellen G. White COL, pg. 338

May we take time reading the accounts of Jesus' death (Gospel). “By beholding the matchless love of Christ, the selfish heart will be melted and subdued” (Ellen G. White. Christ's Object Lesson, 394).

Prayer Walk

What is fasting? We pause to think of what it stands for and generally what comes to mind is, one of the most powerful spiritual disciplines one will and can undergo. It shows to God that we are ready to be filled with the Holy Spirit, to be led, to be guided, and to understand and hear our ultimate purpose in these busy days.

As Wednesday evening approached with our half day fast coming to a close, we were ready to do our work. We were ready to go the village of Gitsegukla, Gitanyao and Gitwangak and go on our prayer walk. We were ready to serve the people and be a light in the darkness. As we arrived fifteen minutes later, we broke off into two groups. We met at the church and discussed the plans.

We started at the top of the village and slowly moving down the streets covering every intersection as we could. We prayed for the deaths in the villages as they are becoming so rampant and ever growing. We prayed for the teens as they are struggling with drug and alcohol addictions. We prayed for protection from the evil agencies who are trying to convince so many to commit suicide and give up their life just because there is no end to the pain. Or because they are seeking for attention for someone to love them. The prayer requests and the prayers continued into the night as we went from street to street and intersection to intersection.

As we passed by one of the houses, we heard a gentlemen say to us, "Thank you for your prayers" as he walked into his house. It almost reminded me sometimes when we lose hope and wonder why we do the things we do and all of a sudden an answer comes from heaven, "Well done my faithful servant". We continued our walk and ended back at the church then we sang a couple songs had a prayer and our mission was done for that night. However, we are reminded again from the word of God that "The Harvest is plenty but the workers are few". So as we go forward as Sulads, we have to remember our calling and our mission to save the souls and endure the trials.

SULADS PRODUCE

The old English proverb asserts itself with complete assurance: "Where there's a will, there's a way." Yes, it is very true because if we believe in God, He will make the way for us.

Sulads Canada is in dire need financially, and God opened our eyes to see the way. That's what makes our faith as strong as it is today because we know that God will provide all our need as promised in Philippians 4:19(NKJV)" And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus."

Thumbs up to Sir Viktor Sabo! For advertising the Fairhaven Sulads produce in Facebook. Orders are coming in for organically grown potatoes and blueberries which helped support Sulads' need. You can follow us up as well. All Glory to GOD!

To First nation people, ceremony is about community; it is a way to acknowledge the interconnectedness of everything. Ceremony or feast is how values and beliefs are taught and reinforced.

Some ceremonies are private and sacred. But sometimes, at First Nation gatherings, everyone present is asked to participate in a cultural ceremony, a prayer or a dance or a feast.

For us Sulads, we are already considered as part of the community. They generously invited us to join with them whenever there is a feast or ceremony. It's imperative to remain non-judgmental throughout the process. If it makes you feel uncomfortable, ask your host to explain the process. Or if all else fails, follow the lead person in front of you.

This picture above shows one of the feast we attended. Sharing and generosity is an integral part of First Nation culture. Everyone including visitors are offered small gifts, fruits, or different items to keep. One thing we learn is to accept everything they offer or put in your table. Avoid rejecting it as much as possible because it looks disrespectful to them. If someone pours you a cup of tea or coffee, take time to drink it unless you have a health reason.

BANNOCK (Native Indian Fry Bread) Recipe

Ingredients

- 1 tsp. salt
- 4 Tbs. fat (animal lard or shortening)
- 4 Tbs. baking powder
- 4 cups flour
- 2 cups water

Directions

- Pre-heat oven to 350 degrees
- Grease 9x12 (rectangle) greas pan
- Stir flour, baking powder, and salt together thoroughly.
- Cut in (room temp) fat to flour mixture until pea sized lumps are formed in flour. Make a "lake" in the flour and pour a water in your "lake". Mix gently with fork until a nice and sticky dough is formed. Place in greased pan. Pat down with hands softly.
- Baked in oven for about an hour and a half or until cooked in the middle. A nice golden brown color should be on top.
- Important!! Place out of pan in towel, leaned up its side against a pot to cool.

SULADS in ACTION

Picture taken at Gitwangak Community Hall when SULADS were invited to sing during a memorial service. It was a great experience to share God's message through music.

Where do you store up your treasures? Earth or Heaven? One day, a rich young ruler came to Jesus, and asked Him a very important question, "Master, what good thing must I do to gain eternal life?" (Matt. 19:16) In Matthew 19:21 "Jesus said unto him, if thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow Me". This is actually a test to the rich young ruler. This test showed the weak spot in his character. Jesus could see that this young man was sincere and earnest in his desire, yet he has to pass the test. The young man admired Jesus and wanted to follow Him, but he was not ready to sacrifice self, because his heart wants to hold on to earthly treasures. What about you? I came across a magazine and found this written account which, I would like to share:

"Treasures"

With most people, it does not take long to discover whether their Treasure is on Earth or in Heaven.

- Talk to a militant about her cause, and see her eyes burn with passion. Her heart is in gaining her objective.
- Talk to an investor about a stock with big dividends, and see his interest. His heart is wrapped up in his portfolio.
- Talk to a trendsetter about a fashion show, and see her face light up. She is interested at once, because her heart is in a beautiful appearance.
- Talk to a politician about a way to gain the votes he needs, and you will have his attention. His heart is in winning the election.

But---

- Talk to a child of God about winning souls for the Kingdom, and see his enthusiasm. He is laying up treasure in Heaven!

"Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also" Matthew 6:21

Arts, Crafts and Creativity

In behalf of SCLADS Canada, we would like to thank Gitanyao Church for allowing us to use their facilities in making SUNDAY SCHOOL possible.

We would like to thank Chief Calvin and Barb Hyzims for their support in bringing their kids over to attend our program.

Special Thanks as well to Chief Lawson and Shirley Gray for being always there and bringing snacks for the kids! God bless your heart!

The children are really attentive and participating well. They love to sing and listen Bible stories. They love doing their crafts as well!

It's amazing when we follow God's leading, we are able to touch the children's lives, inspire them to be a better person, give comfort and big smile.

We know that by the grace of God the seeds of compassion has been planted. We thank God that children were blessed and we hope that one day soon, someone will receive Christ and be saved.

Above all, We Thank GOD for all the answered prayers and for taking care of each and every one of us!

Picture was taken at Gitanyao Church where the kids portrayed the parable of the Prodigal Son.

We are inviting kids to be in Gitanyao Church Every Sunday at 2:00pm.. Thankyou!!

CHRISTMAS EVE

Sulads family had our own Christmas extravaganza! At Christmas Eve, we gathered at the White House (guesthouse). The night started with devotional followed by the festive meal! Fun filled games, exchanging gifts, laughter, and friendship filled the air with joy, happiness and love. Thank you God, for the Blessings!

GITANYAO CHRISTMAS DINNER

It was a great opportunity for Sulads Canada to attend the villages' waves of holiday cheers and festive meals during this Christmas season! Carolling in Gitwangak brought cheers and blessings to people.

After a festive meal in Kitwancool, our music director ma'am Alta Ramada and the Sulads family shared a mini Christmas concert. Kick started with the kids playing Christmas piano pieces, and then followed by "O Holy Night" echoing the hall as the Sulads gentlemen, with their soft blended voices sang. The night culminated with a Christmas medley rendition by the ukulele ensemble.

JANUARY 2, 1961 – OCTOBER 16, 2015

We were saddened by the tragic and unexpected loss of one of our regular church goers, a very dear friend, and a thoughtful brother (wek), who had a car accident at the very entrance of Fairhaven campus.

It was in the afternoon of October 9, 2015, coming back from Hazelton when we (Ramada, Fronda and Palapar family) were stopped at the metal bridge, the last bridge to cross over before turning to Fairhaven campus. We were informed that there was a car accident at the other end of the bridge. We were patiently waiting and wondering at the same time, if who could be involved in that accident. Not long enough, we had the shocking information that our dearest friend and brother (wek) was involved in that accident.

When the family knew that we were at the other end of the bridge, they came to meet us and requested us to sing and pray for them. It was around 7 p.m when we were able to pass through and go home.

The family thank SULADS Canada for being the BACKBONE of their dear brother during his ups and downs of life's journey and for bringing him back to church and read his Bible. The family was overjoyed over his transformation. Praise the Lord for His undying love!

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND TO OUR CHURCH SERVICES.

We are located at : 83 Church Rd. Gitwangak BC V0J2A0
