

Valdepa Movies

Mr. Smith goes to Washington Columbia Pictures 1939. When Jefferson Smith finds himself unexpectedly appointed as senator, he travels to Washington D.C., eager to represent American ideals on the floor of congress. However, he is disappointed when he discovers that a political machine exists in his state. Because he values freedom and justice enough to fight this political empire, he gains the power to achieve the seemingly impossible.

How to Train Your Dragon Paramount Pictures 2010. Hiccup wants to prove that he too can become a dragon slayer. However, when he finds his dragon, he does not desire to slay it; instead, he befriends it; and changes his world in the process.

Bolt Walt Disney 2008. Bolt, a Hollywood dog star, finds himself separated from his “person”, Penny. His strong desire to find her motivates him to overcome his own fears and eventually reunites with her.