

Privacy Policy

Broadshade Holiday Apartments is the sole owner of the information collected on this website.

We will not share, sell or rent this information to other parties in ways different from that which is disclosed in this statement.

Broadshade Holiday Apartments collects information from our users at several different points on our website for specific purposes such as email and content information and to help us assess the effectiveness of our marketing.

Our website contains links to other sites. Broadshade Holiday Apartments is not responsible for the privacy practices of such sites and users should satisfy themselves as to the privacy protections afforded by these other sites before using them.

This statement applies solely to the information collected by this website.

If a user's personally identifiable information changes such as an address or if a user no longer wishes to be notified of our services we will correct, update or remove the data provided to us on receipt of an email addressed to info@broadshade.co.uk.

This privacy policy may change from time to time as we develop the range of services on the website. If it does we will place an updated version on this page.
