

WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT SAFETY?

Answer the following questions to determine how much you know about wet weather safety.

1. Name one type of personal protective equipment that can help prevent slips and falls on wet surfaces.
2. Name two situations that should be clearly marked with hazard/caution signs when wet working conditions exist:
3. Hurrying in the rain to prevent product inventory and materials from getting wet is a good idea.
 True
 False
4. Besides weather conditions, what is another situation that can lead to a slippery or unsafe work surface?
5. To prevent standing water and to speed drying, _____ should be checked for debris and clogs at the beginning of the rainy season and during heavy storms.
6. What are some specific things that management and you as an employee can do to prevent accidents from happening?
7. Name three specific work areas and equipment that are likely to become dangerous in wet weather.