Be Inspired

You're never too old to party. A remarkable music video.

You're never too old to have fun, at least according to those living in Belvedere's Assisted Living Facility in Westlake, Ohio. When you picture your grandparents in their nursing home, you probably imagine days filled with card games and rounds of bingo. These senior citizens have something a little more active in mind. Maybe I've just seen "Grumpy Old Men" a few too many times, but I was shocked to see so many elderly ladies and gentlemen join in on the fun. I can only hope I have half as much fun as they do when I reach my golden years.

They say that being active in your later years helps keep you young at heart, and that certainly seems true for the Belvedere Boys! It just goes to show that no matter how old you are, you've got to fight for your right to party. Though I was surprised to see
