An Integrated Service to Manage and Co-ordinate all of your Long Term Care Requirements

How we can help you

Looking after the care needs and financial affairs of your loved ones as they grow older presents a complex, sensitive set of challenges. You need not face these alone, because we can look after everything for you.

With PGS Law, you have access to one-to-one, dedicated support to co-ordinate all aspects of your elderly care.

Why choose us

We have access to a network of specialist care advocates who will organise long term care arrangements for you or your loved ones, and we can provide you with legal and financial solutions to help cover costs and achieve better outcomes.

Our aim is to ensure you have the financial means to get the best possible long term care.

We can manage all of your legal arrangements on your behalf and provide financial management solutions to help you make informed choices, taking care of all of the complex paperwork.

Benefits of our service

- Access to one-to-one, dedicated support across all aspects of elderly care.
- Care service provision and financial solutions tailored to your own specific circumstances.
- A clearer understanding of legal and financial options for care services and funding availability.
- Informed decisions for achieving better long term care for you, your family and your loved ones.

“We can secure better care arrangements to ease the worries of later life, helping you to put more efficient plans in place to help meet care costs.”

Flexible Solutions for Long Term Care

We can ensure you receive expert guidance and advice in the following key areas:

Long term care planning

We will arrange a detailed analysis of your needs to identify your options for long term care provision and make appropriate recommendations.

From suitability and inspections of care homes, through to planning care packages and home support services, we can arrange it all for you, tailoring our support to your own specific circumstances.

Privately or NHS funded care

Whether it's sorting out care home fees, applying for retrospective funding or recovering care costs, PGS Law and our network of specialist advocates can handle all of the arrangements.

We can also ascertain eligibility for NHS Continuing Healthcare funding.

Legal services

We ensure you, your family or your representative have the appropriate legal powers to act.

We can put in place lasting a Power of Attorney, a Living Will and Court of Protection documents, or undertake prompt assessments for mental and physical capacity.
