Upcoming Workshop

Featuring Wilhelmina Yazzie

Monday, March 22$^{nd}$, 2021

“Importance of Advocacy”

12:00 pm to 1:00 pm MT

EPICS is delighted to welcome Ms. Wilhelmina Yazzie, Navajo, an incredible mother and powerful advocate to present on the Importance of Advocacy. She has many years of outstanding experience in leadership and advocating for students from disadvantaged economic backgrounds and at-risk including Native Americans, English Language Learners, Hispanic-Latino students and students with disability. Ms. Yazzie is highly known for her lawsuit the Yazzie/Martinez vs New Mexico alongside a concerned parent. Her passion is to see all students receive adequate, equitable, sufficient and uniform system of education as guaranteed by the education clause of the NM State Constitution. Therefore, students become prepared for college, careers and self-sufficient.

This learning opportunity will provide an overview on why advocacy is important and how to gather and use resources to advocate for your child(ren). Additionally, an overview and updates will be provided on the Yazzie/Martinez Lawsuit.

Register in advance for the Workshop using the link below: Press ctrl + click on the link below.

https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZwsf-6upz0tGtasE3_N0OcG7cJeqTNFYUZ

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.