3rd Annual Congress

A Modern and Effective Taxation System to advance Domestic Resource Mobilization in Africa:
The Role of Information Technology and Tax Information Exchange

Venue: To be confirmed

4 – 6 September 2017

SECOND CALL FOR PAPERS

The African Tax Administration Forum (ATAF) and the African Tax Research Network (ATRN) are pleased to invite submissions for the 3rd ATRN Annual Congress, which presents an opportunity for academics, researchers, tax administrators, students, tax practitioners, consultants and decision-makers on fiscal and tax policy in Africa, to gather and discuss different aspects relating to national, regional and international tax matters.

CALL FOR PAPERS

The theme of the Annual Congress is “A Modern and Effective Taxation System to advance Domestic Resource Mobilization in Africa: The Role of Information Technology and Tax Information Exchange.”

We seek high-quality submissions that further the knowledge and understanding of national, regional and international tax matters.

Prospective authors, both academics and practitioners, are invited to submit original and innovative papers on any topic related to this broad theme. Suggested topics of interest to be covered under the main theme include:

- Digital Solutions for leapfrogging taxation development in Africa: the role of Technology in the administration of taxation
- Role of information exchange and its effective application for tax transparency in Africa
- Skills of the 21st Century Tax administrators in Africa: how do universities and tax administrations keep pace?
- Good governance and fiscal legitimacy in Africa
- Redirecting international development assistance towards investments in effective taxation systems in Africa
- Understanding local government taxation in Africa to increase public service delivery, representation, and governance
- Strengthening tax administrations in Africa: the role of tax policy & stakeholder collaboration
- African tax reforms and their revenue impact
- Tax policy reforms in Africa and their developmental impact
- Cross border taxation issues in Africa

While the theme of the Congress is A Modern and Effective Taxation System to advance Domestic Resource Mobilization in Africa: The Role of Information Technology and Tax Information Exchange, contributed papers on any topic in taxation in Africa will be considered.

Types of Submissions

The ATRN scientific committee invites submissions of papers for oral presentation at the Annual Congress in two major categories:

- Academic papers: These papers will be peer-reviewed by members of the Scientific Committee. If accepted, they will be invited to be presented at the ATRN Annual Congress.
- Presentations based on non-academic papers: This category covers Policy Briefs, Best Practices, and Short Case Studies.
 - After the ATRN Annual Congress in September, researchers are invited to submit their revised and final papers for consideration for publication in the ATRN Working Paper Series and Policy Briefs. These papers will be submitted to a double-blind Peer-review process. The deadline for paper submission will be in November. The papers may subsequently be published in peer-reviewed journals.
 - Papers are accepted both in English and in French.

Important dates and deadlines

Deadline for paper submissions:

Deadline for final submission of full research papers: 19 May 2017

- A separate submission of a title page and manuscript (anonymous) will be required
- Notification of acceptance of full-length papers will be sent to authors via email after a double-blind peer-review process by 30 June 2017.
- All manuscripts submitted will be required to meet the formatting guidelines for manuscripts as set in the ATRN web page. Unlike preceding years, any papers not meeting the minimum requirements will be rejected. The link for paper submission will be open from 03 March 2017
- A special recognition for high quality papers will be conferred through a Best Paper Award Program.
- A short CV must accompany each submission.
